JUNE

CLASS OF JUNE '46 PRESENTS
THE RECORD

"No man is an ilande, intire of itselfe;
Every man is a peece of the continent,
A parte of the maine; if a clod bee Washed away by the sea, Europe is
The lessee, as well as if a promontorie
Were, as well as if a mannor of Thy friends or of thine owne were;
Every man's death diminishes me,
Because I am involved in mankind;
And therefore never send to know
For whom the bell tolls;
It tolls for thee."

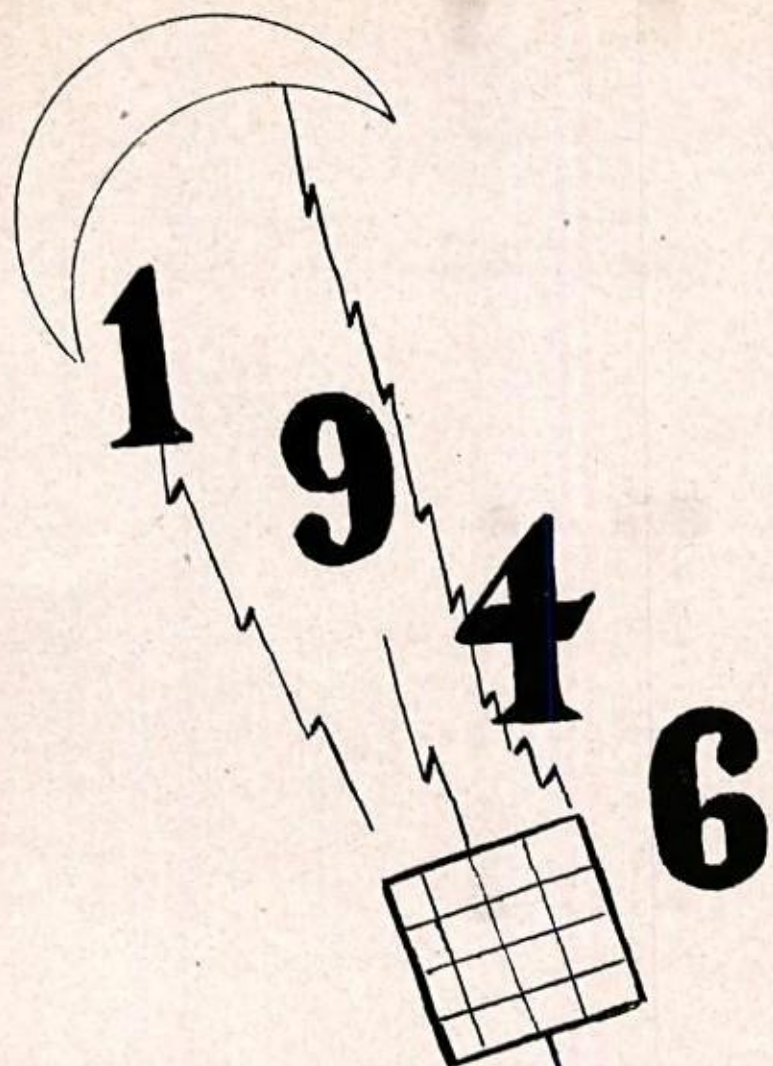

—John Donne

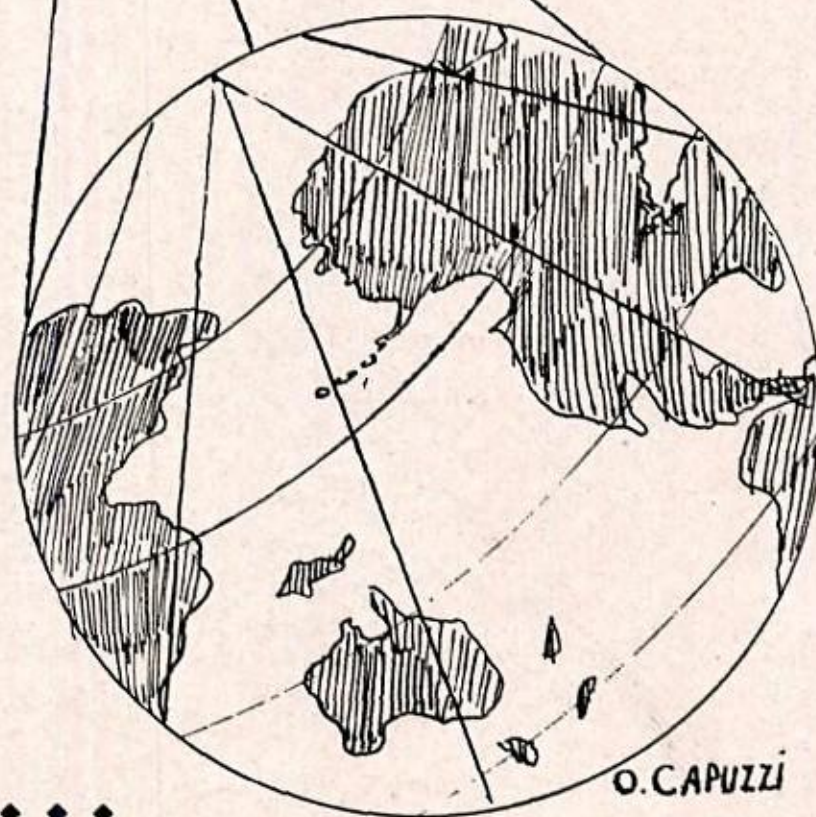

ON AUGUST 6, 1945 A NEW AGE WAS BORN. THIS NEW ERA INTRODUCES GRAVE UNPRECEDENTED SOCIAL CHALLENGES WITH WHICH MAN WILL HAVE TO COPE. WE, OF THE CLASS OF JUNE '46, FULLY REALIZING THE TREMENDOUS EFFECT THESE MOMENTOUS CHANGES WILL HAVE UPON OUR FUTURE, HUMBLY DEVOTE THE THEME OF THIS RECORD BOOK TO—THE ATOMIC AGE.

THEME . . .

AS A TOKEN OF OUR SINCERE APPRECIATION FOR ALL THAT SHE HAS DONE IN OUR BEHALF DURING THE PAST THREE YEARS, WE, OF THE CLASS OF JUNE '46, WISH TO DEDICATE THIS RECORD BOOK TO OUR HELPFUL AND INSPIRING SPONSOR, MRS. MARGARET BRAMBLEY.

HAIL AND FAREWELL...

TO THE CLASS:

You leave Overbrook to meet competition much stiffer than any class preceding you has had to meet. Each of you will have to measure yourself against those of your school generation and those who have returned to civilian life from service. Knowing this to be so you can readily see the necessity for further study and learning not only in colleges and schools but in the areas of the job you will have to fill.

Never stop trying to learn and you will never stop learning! If—and—when you stop learning you are through—finished—done! So don't stop.

With best wishes.

William M. Dime

...TILL WE MEET AGAIN

DEAR CLASS OF JUNE, 1946,

Now as you graduate from high school, you stand upon the threshold of a new era. There is the possibility of new forces being let loose upon a helpless world; already plans for a new type of international control of these forces are groping their way toward formulation. But I ask you to remember, as we say good-bye, that not by government alone will the forces of destruction be controlled, but by a new idealism—one that arises from an unselfish interest in and enthusiasm for one's fellow creatures, no matter what their position in society. Every young person of the coming generation, no matter what his abilities, social status, or financial wealth, can and should develop within himself a spiritual light that will lead him to live not for himself alone, but for others; every one of you who becomes a leader in the new era will be great insofar as you are willing to live by and spread the idealism of the new brotherhood throughout the world you touch. My best wishes to each and every one of you in the years to come for the achievement of these ideals.

Sincerely,

Margaret J. Brambley

OUR GUIDING

LIGHTS

The Class of June, '46

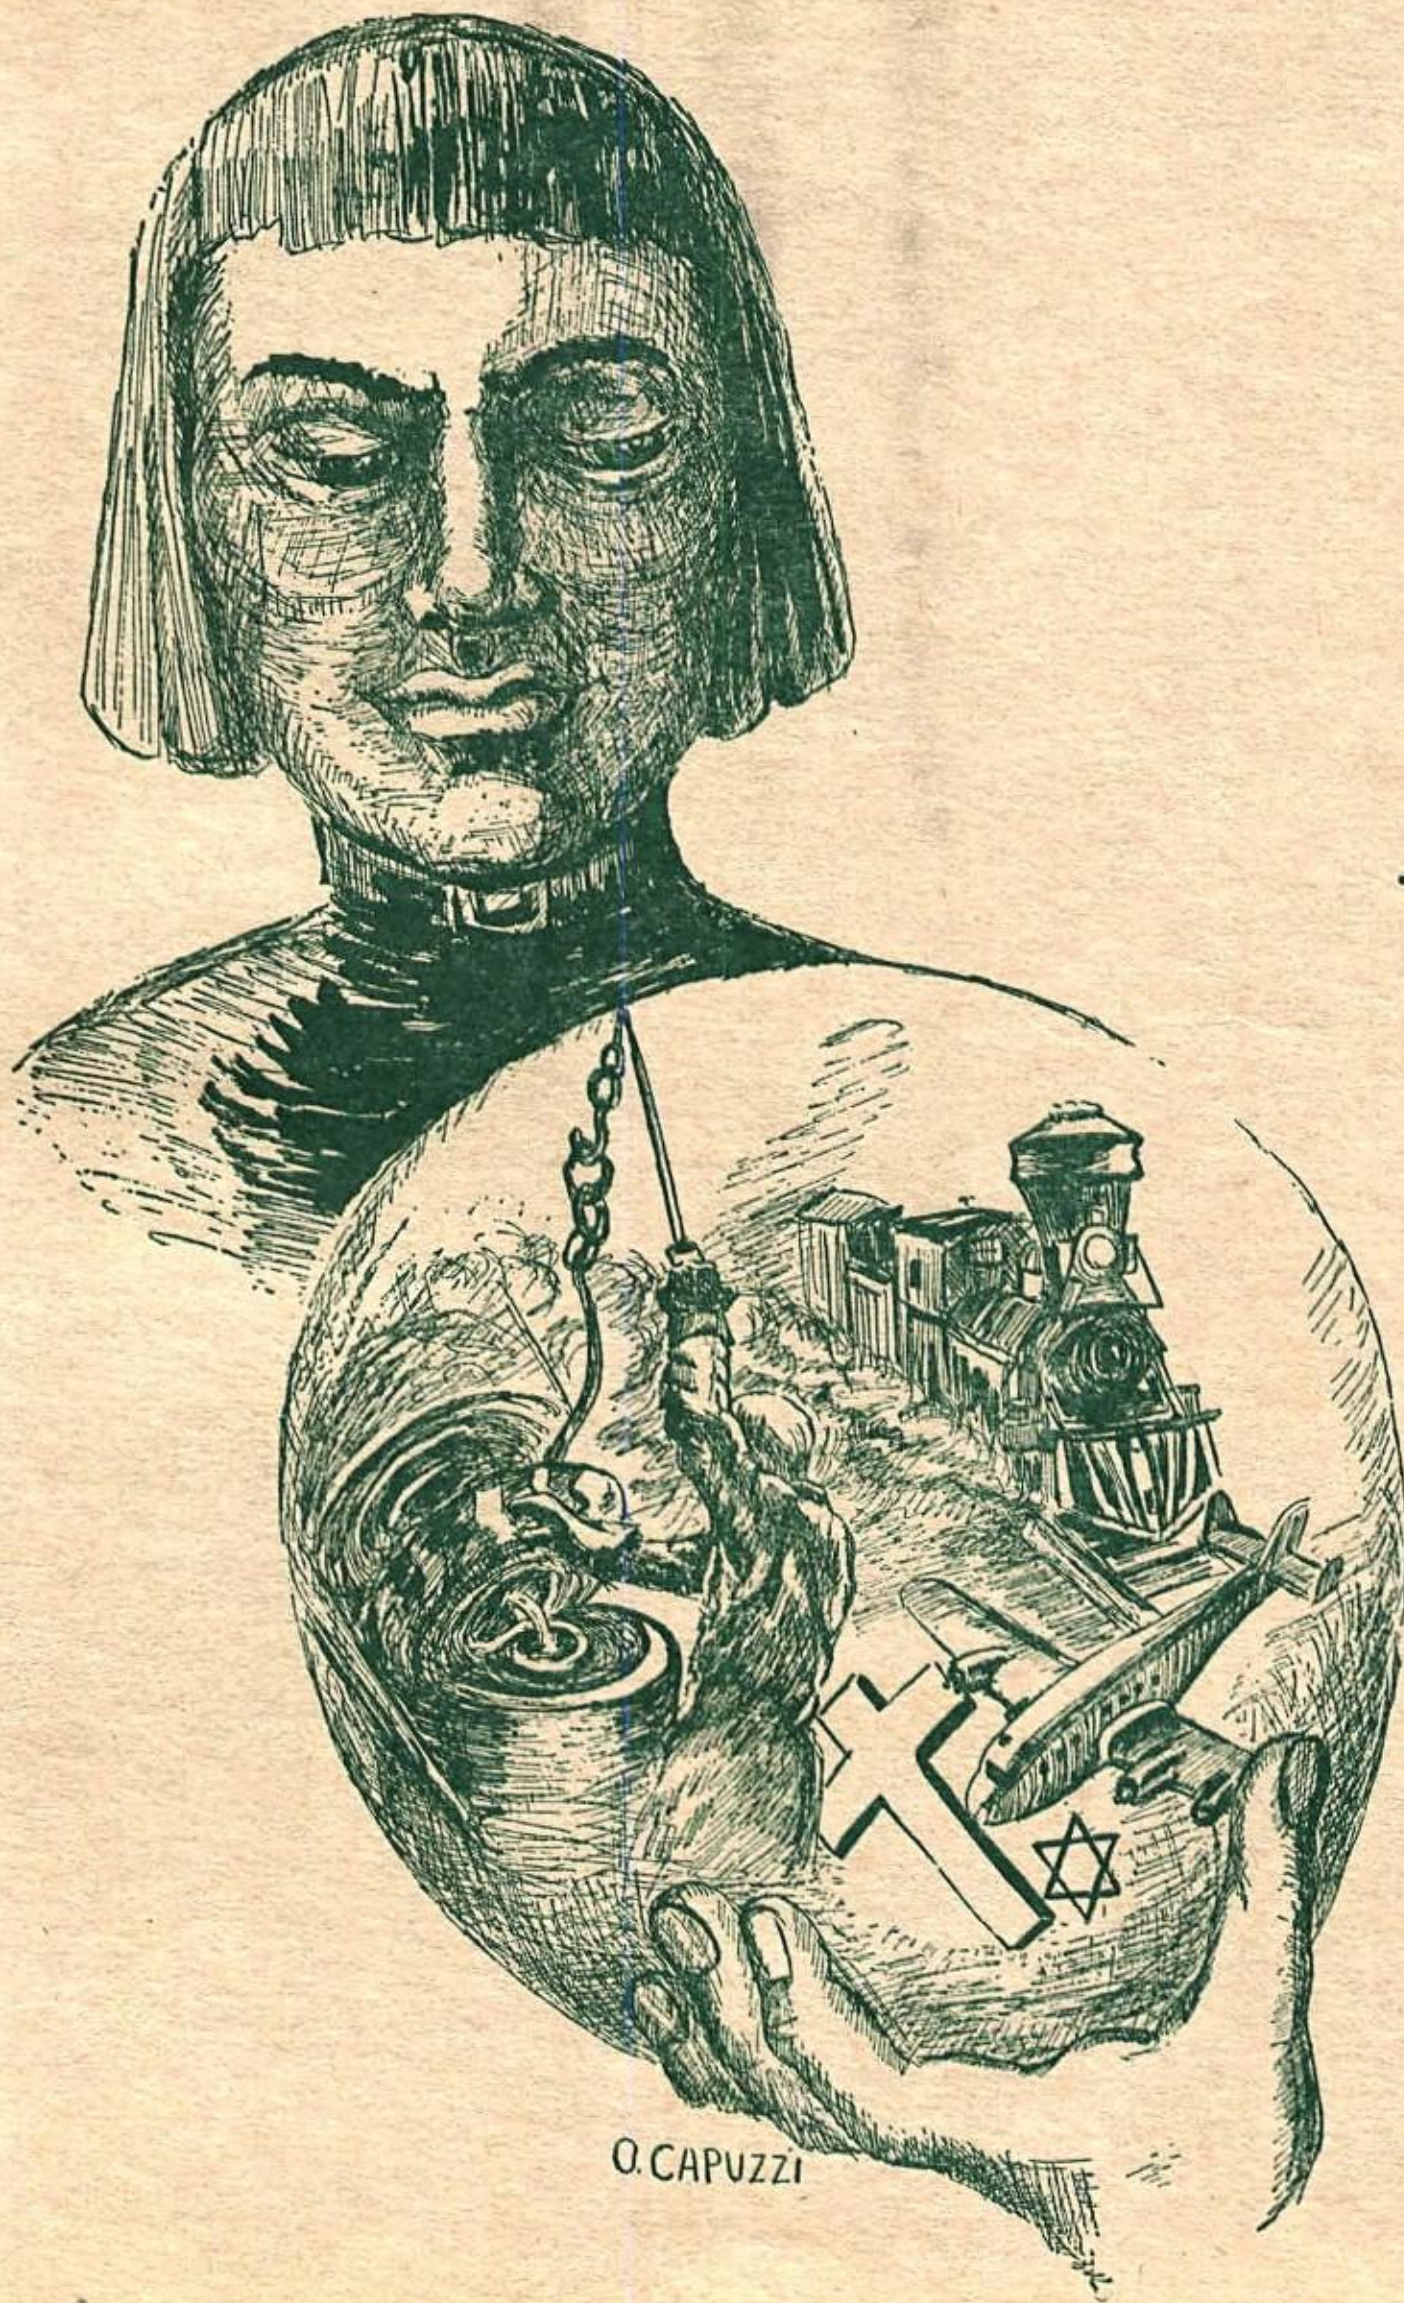

*Through the lusty, booming cries to wipe out savagery,
Through the terror-tainted years of war and memory,
Through the bursting, throbbing rhythm of atomic energy,
Comes a dashing, streamlined class, a rushing whirling sea.*

*Through the football games, the sleighrides, and the jumpy, jivey swing,
Through the rollicking sunny laughter of hearts about to sing,
Through the gaiety and merriment of fun's most stirring ring,
Comes a sparkling, flashing class, about to take to wing.*

*Through heads bowed down in deep respect and voices that are still,
Through the solemn humble reverence of eyes so soon to fill,
Through the organ's straining music and prayer's pulsating trill, Comes a class, sincere and tranquil, inscribed in God's Own will.*

REFLECTION

ELAINE ADOLPH

15 Berbro Ave. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Dutchie" expects to become an authoress or a singer in later life. On the side, of course, she wants to be a wife. Training for her ambition, "Dutchie" spends her time reading, playing the piano, and singing. Her favorite likes are books, music, food, men, and roller skating. All rests with those who read.

LORETTA J. ADAMS

5912 Thompson Street Ac.
S.A., A.A.

We might call "Rett" the "hubba-hubba girl" since she's terrific at drawing the cartoon of the same name. All painting and drawing is her field; but as for a career, the position of housewife is most favorable to "Rett." Believe it or not, this girl claims she likes all teachers.

Such heavenly figures from her pencil flow.

JOANNA MARIE ALBANI

1237 N. 54th St. Dist. Ed.
S.A., A.A., Banker

If that dream of inheriting a million dollars comes true, Joanna will surely be found diving into a swimming pool in the company of a "big strong man." We hope she has plenty of time for dreaming and dancing, for these are favorites with her.

Until all my dreams come true.

JO-ANN ALBRIGHT

1541 N. Alden St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Lucky "Mr. Jo-Ann" will have a wonderful cook on his hands. Movies, radio, and trips to the seashore hit the spot; but woe to homework. Here's another girl whose future will find her an able sec. Good luck, Jo.

Best beloved on earth, the faithful wife.

DANIEL P. AMSTERDAM

5659 Lebanon Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

"Danny" is the one who, someday, shall write the "great American novel." True, short story writing is the closest he's come to it as yet—but we have faith in him. Jitterbugging and waiting in lines are strictly "outs" with usually good-natured "Dan."

Thou canst never be false to any man.

JERRY BAKER

5622 Gainor Rd. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Football, A.A.
Representative.

When it is a question of women Jerry likes them all. Aside from females, this "casanova," goes in for a dash of outdoor sports. Care-free and footloose, Jerry admits that he's in love with the world. To become an electrical engineer is his goal for the future.

I love life.

LANDIS BARISH

5210 Euclid Avenue Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Calling Dr. Barish! Landis may someday have the pleasure of opening your skull for he is destined to be a great surgeon. Around the Christmas holidays you'll find him sorting mail at the P.O. Our future doctor loves food in large quantities and takes pride in his ever-present beard.

*I am not arguing with you—
I am telling you!*

RAPHAEL BECKER

1125 N. 40th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

"Beck's" only ambition is to remain a civilian. Getting up early Monday morning, is a feat "Beck" will have to learn to master. Food, females, and movies rate high on his calendar but he would like to "check out" Latin and those awful "O" periods.

Oh how I hate to get up in the morning.

LUCY M. ALDIN

823 Lex St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Delegate,
Lunchroom Aide, Honor
Aide, Record Book Staff.

"Lu" "Rembrandt" Aldin champions housewifery as her future work. Her leisure time is devoted to oil paintings and working in water colors. If they would serve fried chicken in the lunchroom, "life would be beautiful" to "Lu."

Closely allied to art.

RITA AMOROSO

6401 Carlton St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Swimming Club.

Skates, skates, skates!
"Give me my skates and a block of ice," says "Ree."
Some day this gal will surely be a champ on the rink. At present, though, she aspires to being a secretary.

She's a good skate!

SHIRLEY L. ANDERMAN

5232 Gainor Road Com.
S.A., A.A.

To travel around the world in minks and diamonds is "Sheree's" dream come true.
Tall blonds can take her dancing any time, but beware of Chinese food and early morning phone calls. Good looks rate high with "Sheree," but don't forget her love for outdoor sports.

Go travel for awhile.

JUANITA J. ARCE

901 Kenmore Rd. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Bowling, Ice Skating, Banker's Aide, Counselor's Aide.

When Juanita, our teacher to be, is not engaged in athletics, she relishes the idea of watching her favorite movie stars on the screen. Aside from the crowded lunch-rooms, Juanita thinks Overbrook is all right.

A sound mind in a sound body.

*Best of Luck
Art.*

BERTRAM S. BENJAMIN

5315 Wynnefield Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Dislikes? Pet peeves? Believe it or not, here's one lad who doesn't have any!! But to see "Sonny" in his glory you have to go out to the park some afternoon and watch him ride "King" over the bridle paths. Drumming and music are also "tops" with Bert.

*Give a man a horse he can

ARTHUR BERGER

1062 North 46th St. Elec.
Victory Corps, S.A., A.A.

"Professor" is determined to become a great engineer in the atomic world. This radio and television wizard spends his leisure time tinkering with an amateur radio, and taking pictures. Our scientist derives much enjoyment from the radio. A successful future to you, "Prof."

One science only will one genius fit.

YALE BERNSTEIN

4170 Leidy Ave. Ac.
Track Team, A.A., S.A.

There is hidden talent in our boy "Baruch"—music!
Have you ever heard that boy laugh? Don't miss it. His claim to fame lies in his capacity for eating and his ability in recognizing female beauty. "Baruch's" one ambition in life is to become a man. We hope he makes it!

Music is the gladness of the world.

HERBERT BERSTEIN

1748 Georges Lane Ac.
Bond and Stamp, A.A.
Rep., A.A., S.A.

Since "Blue Beard's" ambition is to marry a rich girl, it's quite natural to find him practising his confessions of love. In his affections only French fries rival girls.
Herby can usually be found in Eddy's, where both can be had.

Women bring to man his greatest blessing.

DOROTHY R. ARNOLD
1691 N. 56th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Sleeping and eating are "Dot's" favorite pastimes with gym work running a close second. "Hubby" is a lucky man 'cause this girl can cook. Homework bores her, but some heartaches must be endured to reach a goal. "Dot's" going to be a swell typist.

I have an exposition of sleep come upon me.

GRACE ASHEKIAN
317 N. 56th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Grace will probably marry the boss's son. Her only aversions are history and gym, but she makes up for it by being an ardent movie fan. Grace, a home girl at heart, can cook, and lucky is the man who wins her favor.

The quickest way to a man's heart is through his stomach.

ANAISE C. ASOUSA
1010 N. 67th St. Com.

A.A., S.A., Orchestra, Music Aide, Class Alternate, Honor Aide.

Our future female C.P.A. finds pleasure in taking pictures, listening to good music, and skating. While biting into a rosy, delicious apple, she tells us that studying just doesn't agree with her. Anaise is currently heard making beautiful music with her magic violin.

Great strokes make great music.

EVELYN MAE ASQUITH
6001 Lansdowne Ave. Com.

S.A., A.A., Honor Aide, Hall Patrol, Lunch Room Aide, Record Book Staff.

"Lyn": "Believe that and you're crazy." Asquith wants to make a million dollars and travel around the world. Quiet "Lyn" enjoys music, good books, and horseback riding. "Lyn" rules out red-headed males, but can spend hours at a time playing the phonograph.

Travel teaches toleration.

Donald Bowser

DONALD BOWSER
5424 Spring St. Ac.

A.A., S.A., A.A. Rep., Library Aide, Senior Room Aide, Basketball Club.

"Crip" is our idea of the real American boy. He has his head in the clouds—anything that has aviation in it is for him; he likes all sports; and drinking and girls who drink are strictly taboo with him. Keep 'em flying, Don!

A sportsman true is he.

HOWARD BRAITMAN
5703 Jefferson St. Ac.

A.A., S.A., Boy's A.A. Rep., Library Aide, Delegate, Prom Committee, Senior Show Committee.

The fiend of "46" delights in the fact that someday he may have the opportunity of teaching all his old teachers. "Howie's" only complaint is that piping hot drinking water doesn't help his constitution.

Experience is the best of schoolmasters.

WALTER BRENNER
1231 Marlyn Rd. Mech. Arts

Cabinet Member, Senior Show Chairman, Delegate, Lunch Room Squad, A.A., S.A.

"Walt's" favorite pastimes are cutting up at class parties and guzzling milk. He prides himself on his ability to whistle and wiggle his ears. His future ambition is to become a bartender either in "Braitman's Nightclub" or in Igor Feldman's Solarium.

Human nature craves novelty.

OLIVER BROWN
220 N. 58th St. Indus.

S.A., A.A., Inter-book sports.

With trigonometry as his best subject, "Ollie" should have no trouble with that future position as a mechanic. Girls are all right with him, but "Ollie" can't bear to see them smoking. Aside from zero periods, he says, "Leave Overbrook as it is."

A countenance truly wrapt in smiles.

ELEANOR AUSTIN

1465 N. 57th St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Swimming Club, Honor Aide, Lunch Room Aide, Office Aide, Representative.

With "El" as an airline hostess, there'll be many passengers knocked for a loop. Sailors, submarine sandwiches, and dancing help make her happy. There aren't many sailors on airplanes though, "El."

Lass that loves sailors.

*Best wishes
To the best Physics cheater Richy Carp*

LAURA BADER

1128 N. 41st St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Honor Aide, Lunchroom Aide.

Conceited people better keep their distance from Laura. This swell girl loves to sing and hopes to be recognized in that field some day. Having fun is Laura's special like, right in line with her disposition.

Of all noises music is the least disagreeable.

JEWEL BAILEY

1224 Atwood Road Com.

S.A., A.A., Class Cabinet, Swimming Club.

"Juke" can spend her leisure hours going for drives with a tall, blond fellow in a convertible coupe, with a stop-off for hamburgers and milk shakes. Her fortes are dancing and playing basketball, and her thought for the future is to be a personnel manager.

It's meat and drink to me.

*Lots of Luck To a swell guy
Albert Carson*

LUISA BARNADA

951 N. 66th St. Com.

A.A., S.A.

What is there about red-headed boys that makes "Breezy" go with the wind? She likes to cut a figure eight and is an ardent movie fan. We'll probably find her near a good-looking boss, taking dictation with one hand and sipping a soda with the other. Ice skating is nice skating.

RICHARD CARP

5647 Diamond St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Basketball Team, Aide.

"Richy," our business tycoon to-be, can be found in the S.A. office during his spare time. When he makes that million he will probably spend his spare time swimming in his luxurious swimming pool, surrounded by many beautiful girls. Nice work if you can get it.

I dreamt that I dwelt in marble halls, with vassals and serfs at my side.

RALPH CARRERE

871 Wynnewood Rd. Mech. Arts

"Ki's" ambition to graduate and then let things come as they may, certainly won't come about because of our socialite's ability to touch his chin with his left elbow. Parties, movies, and raiding the icebox at some friend's house is much more fun to "Ki" than rolling out of bed for zero period.

Eat, drink and be merry.

ALBERT CARSON

2307 N. 51st St. Ac.

A.A., S.A., S.A. President, Basketball Team, Cheerleader.

When "What-a-Man" Carson isn't busy winning a basketball game for O.H.S., he's occupied with putting across a Student Government project. Just call him "Superman" and you've got our chief executive sized up.

He is a leader of Leaders.

CARL CARTER

1227 N. 57th St. Ac.

Track Team.

This quiet man about town has pretty girls and sports in the back of his head. Any night Carl may be found doing fancy steps at the Arena. Big things will happen after graduation when Carl becomes a great architect and a swell husband to the girl of his dreams.

It's no sin to look at a pretty girl.

"Nora" Belenko*

MARGARET BARRINGTON
1248 N. 55th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Our future "Marge" will be clad in white from head to toe—not as a bride, though the possibilities are great, but a nurse. Her free hours will be devoted to dancing with tall boys, preferably sailors. Our female Dr. Kildare also goes in for sports in a big way.

A lady with a lamp shall stand.

DORIS J. BEISEL
830 Brooklyn St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Library Aide, Lunchroom Aide, Bowling Club, Ice Skating Club, Record Book Collection.

Tall men rank high with "Dor," whose favorite pastime is swaying to music of a top-notch band. "Dor's" daydreams consist of traveling to far-off places with a peanut sandwich in one hand and a bowling ball in the other.

I travel for travel's sake.

LEONORE BELENKO
5250 Lebanon Avenue Ac.
S.A., A.A., Leaders Club, Bowling Club, Aide, A.A. Representative, Class Treasurer.

Our raven-haired beauty, "Nora," has a dazzling smile for everyone! Her warmth and vivacity have gained her many friends. Because of her proficiency in sports, she plans a career of physical education.

Slowly as from a cloud of gold comes out thy deep ambrosial smile.

PHYLLIS BELL
1003 N. 40th St. Com.
A.A., S.A., Swimming Club.

"But Doll! I just love men, love 'em, love 'em!" P.B. can be heard a mile away talking 'bout anything from men to food and back to men. To her, life is beautiful; and her only ambition is to do all the exciting things that she has missed.

Love is greater than ambition.

*lots of luck
Carl Cohen* *loads of luck
Paul*

SEYMOUR CLEFF
5615 Lebanon Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Beacon Advertising Manager.

Bachelor!!! Radio Announcer? These are the ambitions of our friend "Seym." Homework doesn't fit in with his athletic and social activities. Whenever there are people to listen you'll find him ready to make them laugh. "Seym" loves life, and he's quick to admit it.

Blessed are the joymakers.

CARL COHEN
5433 Diamond St. Auto.
S.A., A.A.

This future "gob" is out to see the world on a free ticket. Carl's main problem is whether he will find the comforts of the Prestige, the enjoyment of fixing autos, the time to do trigonometry, and partake in athletics in the Navy. Experience will be the best way of finding out, Carl!

The best things in life are free.

PAUL JAY COHEN
5644 Diamond St. Ac.

"Pablo's" one swell fellow. His jovial personality and amiable manner not only win him friends by the dozen, but rate him high with the girls. And speaking of girls, "Pablo," our C.P.A. aspirant, can't take his mind or eye off the beautiful ones with hubba hubba figures.

Very pleasant hast thou been.

ANTHONY CORBO
444 N. Daggett St. Auto.
A.A., S.A., A.A. Representative.

"Tony," our future aeronautical engineer, finds his enjoyment in listening to good music and dreaming about his beautiful brunettes. In the print shop our friend's discussion turns to sports with a few sarcastic remarks thrown in about the evil zero periods.

Among good things, I prove and find the quiet life doth most abound.

DOROTHY BEMBRY
119 N. 58th St. Com.
A.A., S.A., Basketball,
Dancing.

Any place where you can have lots of fun ranks high with "Dottie." Of course, a "fine time" must include ice-cream, dancing, and men. "Dottie" is a sports addict. Someday she'll become some boss's sec.

I've taken my fun where I've found it.

BETTY JANE BERKLE
534 Fountain St. Com.
Treasurer of 12B Class,
A.A., S.A.

Not only does "Bet" like hamburgers, but she can cook them too. She hopes to travel 'round the world someday, taking her roller skates along, of course. "Bet" certainly has what it takes when it comes to keeping track of class dues.

A lady might like to travel abroad but dwell at home.

ILLEANE BIENER
1747 Georges Lane Com.
S.A., A.A., Lunchroom
Aide, A.A. Representative.

"Beanie's" long dreamed of desire is to travel the road of life with "B"eauty, "I"ntelligence, "L"ove, and "L"augher. "Know-it-alls" are definitely a thorn in "Beanie's" side. Eating, sleeping, and listening to the radio are tops.

He's just my Bill.

MYRA BLEIMAN
5918 Woodbine Ave. Com.
S.A., A.A., Lunchroom
Aide.

"Mike" is a most agreeable gal with no complaints and many talents. She loves to cut a slow rug and is a "dead-eye" at miniature golf. "Mike" is impatient to graduate and leave all unpleasant memories behind. Happier memories to you, "Mike."

What sweet delight a quiet life affords.

GEORGE C. CORDIVARI
6499 1/2 Morris Park Rd. Ac.
A.A., S.A., Delegate.

Studying engineering at Drexel is George's ambition, but meanwhile girls keep him on the go. He delights in a delicious meal after a terrific game of basketball. If the roof is raised at Quint's house you can blame it on George.

Handsome is as handsome does.

WILLIAM W. DANCY
1314 N. 58th St. Ac.
A.A., S.A., Boy's A.A.
Rep., Cross Country Team,
Track Manager.

"Bill," a dancer and violin player, heads straight for that icebox at 2:15 and while eating listens to his favorite records. The aeronautical engineer to-be is sweet on girls, flying, and basketball; but big deals and zero periods hit a sour note.

Mind the music and the step.

JOSEPH EASTER
5730 N. Camac St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Bonds and Stamps, Banker, Prom Committee.

Bursting into rooms with "Hello lucky people, aren't you glad I'm here?" is "Cinch's" standard greeting. When not parlant le francais or swimming, he's denouncing zero periods. In moments of weakness he confesses his ambition, becoming a surgeon.

ARTHUR A. FELDMAN
5840 Woodcrest Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Alternate, Beacon Photography, Record
Book Photographer, Prom Committee.

In future newspapers you're likely to notice pictures with the following caption: "Photograph by 'Art' Feldman." Becoming a newspaper photographer is "Art's" ambition, you know. "Art" has zest for driving and swimming.

See the world through the eyes of a camera.

Best of everything to a really deserving guy! (That's a joke son!)

Dot.

DOROTHY BRENNER

5233 Berks St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Delegate, Alternates, Cabinet, Class Secretary in 12A, 12B.

Sugar and spice and everything nice; that's what "Dot" is made of. Whenever "Dotty" is around, everybody's happy. "Dot" adores sailors and football players. Her ambition is to find her "one and only" and raise the perfect family.

How excellent a blend of worthy traits.

ANITA BROWN

2325 Bryn Mawr Ave. Ac.
A.A., S.A., Honor Aide, Swimming Club, Basketball Club, Bowling Club.

You'll always find "Brownie" at her favorite hangout—"Bab's." Her love for nice clothes is perfectly apparent. "Brownie" has no use for men's hats, but men—well . . . Her ambition is to become an interior decorator.

Good clothes open all doors.

EVELYN BUCKRUM

235 N. Hobart St. Com.
S.A., A.A. Member.

Our future office girl passes her leisure time listening to the radio. Her enthusiasm runs from pretty clothes to food. "Woe to too much ego," says "Eve"; "I hate conceited people." Sports rate high with Evelyn who's an all-around girl.

Variety is the spice of life.

DENA M. CANADY

5321 Woodbine Ave. Ac.
A.A., S.A., Office Aide.

"Dee" aspires to be a success; and with a personality like hers, she can't help but fulfill her ambition. Whenever she's reading poetry, playing the piano, or dancing with "him," Dena's happy and serene. Those dimples are your winning charm, so keep on smiling, "Dee."

A friendly smile is worth a million.

FRANK FERZETTI

1509 Belmont Ave. Elec.
A.A., S.A.

As far as Frank is concerned, zero period is just about the worst thing that could happen to anyone. Fortunately, however, he doesn't spend too much time brooding over it, because sports and dreaming of the day when he'll be a first-class electrician take up most of his time.

Make the wheels of industry turn.

RICHARD FINKEL

5072 Wynnefield Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Track Team, Parade Night, Vocal Ens.

Richard, of the broad shoulders and wolfish manner, is fond of gym and attractive females. His pet peeves are the necessity of copying notes and the lack of elevator service in O.H.S. When not saying "good deal, Macneal" he can be heard praising Miss Patchel and the Vocal Ensemble.

The observ'd of all observers.

STANTON FORMAN

4120 Pennsgrove St. Ac. and Com.
S.A., A.A., A.A. Representative.

"Stan," of the engaging smile and gleaming white shirts, spends most of his time at the Sigma Alpha Rho Frat house. Sports and fraternity life take up most of his leisure time. His ambition is to become a C.P.A. Right now, however, he concentrates on girls and sports.

Oh to the club, the scene of savage joys.

JOSEPH N. FREEDMAN

2130 N. 57th St. Ac.
A.A., S.A., Senior Show Committee, Basketball Club, Track Team.

If you feel like laughing when things look dark, call Gre. 2927 and ask for "Joe." Hanging out at Claire's, listening to records, and playing basketball are right up "Joe's" alley. Sharp ties and a sense of humor are this swell kid's distinguishing traits.

There's the humor of it.

OCTAVIA CAPUZZI
521 N. 64th St. Ac.

Class Vice-Pres., Art Editor, Prom Committee, Delegate, Honor Aide, Vice-Pres. of Art Club, S.A., A.A., Majorette of Drill Squad.

The graphic sketch club thrives on "Ocky's" frequent visits. Our future sculptress finds painting, sculpturing, and sketching most absorbing pastimes. However, sports interest our versatile artist also.

Art indeed is not the bread, but the wine of life.

Variety is the mother of enjoyment.

LUCY B. CERIALE
607 N. 64th St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Library Aide, Bowling Club, Volley Ball.

To be a model is "Poodles'" ambition but this day-dreaming young lady will follow it through with that ring on the third finger of the left hand. That lucky fellow will have to share "Poodles'" likes which are reading, eating, dancing, bowling, and wearing plaid shirts.

Wishing will make it so.

JEROME S. FRIEDMAN
5036 Gainor Rd. Mech. Arts
S.A., A.A., Alternate, Chess Club, Senior Show Committee.

"Sandy's" keen on girls, dates, and cars. His ambition is to own a Lincoln convertible. He's proud of his ability to get dates at the last moment. So that's how he spends those one-hour phone conversations! Girls who don't appreciate his one-handed driving get thumbs down from this lad. Oh, "Sandy!"

A wolf in sheep's clothing.

IRV FRIEDRICH
3845 Cambridge St. Elec.
A.A., S.A., Electric Crew.

"Trying to dream up a button that will press a button," is Irv's favorite pastime. He admits that his two main abilities are making good excuses and telling the world's largest whoppers. When not at P.M., he's sure to be asleep; for sleep and more sleep is what Irv craves.

Leave me, leave me to repose.

DAVID GELLMAN
5222 Columbia Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Chess Team, Chess Club, Treasurer Chess Club.

Chess, holidays, and sports are all tops with David. "Snyder's Solarium" is where he likes to hang his hat, and where he's usually found. Although secretive about his ambition, his ability in math leads us to believe that he should go far in that field.

Life's too short for Chess.

AARON GELSTINE
1800 N. 52nd St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., J.V. Basketball, Record Book Literary Staff, Boys' A.A. Representative.

"Bunny" is one of the most humorous and popular fellows in our class. Music and sports, especially basketball, are his main pleasures. He hopes to enter the medical profession, but can you imagine "Bunny" an M.D.?

Suppress me if you can! I am a merry jest!

ELEANOR CERRITELLI

6039 Race Street Com.

A.A., S.A., Bowling Club,
A.A. Representative.

"El" and tall men get along very well. It's inevitable that she will be sitting beside a handsome man taking dictation a few months after graduation. Meanwhile movies, 950 Club, and dancing keep her away from homework.

Constancy of purpose leads to better things.

ROSEMERI CHICANO

728 Kenmore Road Dist. Ed.

A.A., S.A., Cheer Leader,
Swimming Club, Library Aide.

Just wearing a pair of dungarees, listening to music, and dancing are enough to keep Rosemeri happy; but she loathes the idea of just sitting still. Rosemeri is looking forward to a future in which all those secret dreams will become realities.

Love is a beautiful dream.

ELEANOR A. CHUSE

5401 Euclid Ave. Com.

A.A., S.A., Round Robin Club, Library Aide.

Movies, music, and interesting books are "Fuzzy's" main attractions. She wants to travel abroad. Homework and oral talks just don't rate when an opportunity to go dancing or bicycling presents itself to our happy-go-lucky miss.

Traveling makes one wiser but less happy.

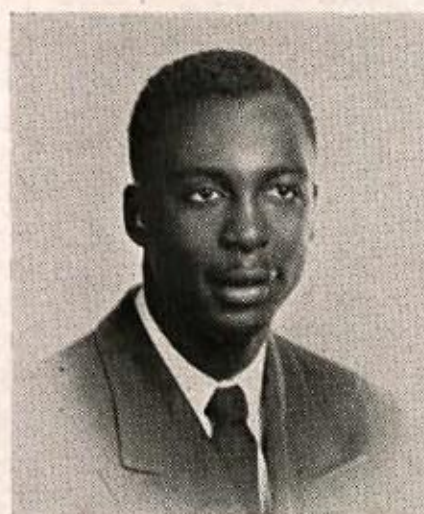

JOSEPHINE CIARROCCHI

722 N. 65th St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Teachers Aide, Library Aide.

Eating an ice cream sundae and listening to Frank Sinatra, spell heaven to "Jo." When not drawing she can be found skating, dancing, or thinking about that certain man. Such diversions help counteract thoughts about oral talks and zero periods.

Ever of thee I'm fondly dreaming.

PERRY BRADFORD

"Marv's" one fellow with whom some girl will be able to prove the old adage, "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach." His pet likes are food, women and sports. In more serious moments he reveals his desire to become a noted physicist and writer.

Skilled is he in sports and pastimes.

ALLEN GOLDENBERG

5108 Nevada St. Mech. Arts

S.A., A.A., J.V. Baseball.

"Goldy," as he is known by his friends, likes gullible girls, but dislikes insincere ones. Tall and slim, Allen's favorite pastime is getting thinner. He is also fond of playing pinochle and billiards, swimming, and breaking girls' hearts. "Goldy" is frequently seen at "Ye Old Nash."

ALL mankind loves a lover.

EARL GOLDMAN

You have a nimble wit.

LOIS CLEM

153 N. 61st St. Com.

A.A., S.A., Honor Aide, Junior Beacon Staff, Alternate, Record Book Staff.

"Lo's" likes are extended to the servicemen and some civvies, but before she settles down with one of these she wants to be a private secretary. During free hours, the Cross Keys and the 950 Club are ardently frequented by her.

Frailty, thy name is woman!

FANNIE JOSEPHINE COBB

1316 Wanamaker St. Ac.

JANE N. COHEN

5602 Wynnefield Ave. Ac.

A.A., S.A., Honor Aide, A.A. Representative.

"Janie" is one girl full of vim, vigor, and vitality. When she isn't talking about her "one and only" B.C., she's giggling with Charlotte G. Jane's special loves include Gregory Peck, food, and here comes that B.C. again. When questioned about the future, Jane replies, "Can't you guess?"

Laugh and the world laughs with you.

LORRAINE COHEN

5321 Montgomery Ave. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Alternate, Honor Aide, Red Cross Club.

"Lory," whose ambition is ad Maritimam, seems to like the B's—Brahms, Beethoven, Bach, Benny Goodman, and a special one in the form of W.B. This fair lass's favorite pastimes are to annoy P.C. in Social and Walt in the Senior Room.

The cautious seldom err.

BILL GOODFELLOW

5739 Haddington St. Mech. Arts

Variety is the soul of pleasure.

LEONARD GOODMAN

Although Leonard dislikes school, he hopes he can escape the draft and enter college. Vacations and gin-rummy games, among "other things" are high, on the list of favorites of this jolly fellow. Those "other things" include beautiful girls, dates, books, and more girls.

Knowledge is power.

WILLIAM GOSEWISCH

1715 N. Lindenwood St. Mech. Arts

S.A., A.A.

When in a thoughtful mood, you can be sure "Bill's" thinking of his ambition, that of becoming an electrical engineer. However, when fun's on the agenda, he favors dancing, bowling, and eating. His favorite hangout is a certain "house on 52nd Street"; but wherever found, "Bill's" a reg'lar fellow.

Nature's first great title-mind.

LOUIS M. GRABOYES

5478 Berks St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Baseball Team, Captain of Basketball Team, President of Boys' A.A., Locker Aide.

God's gift to athletics can also croon a mean tune, gals. He lists his likes in this order: girls, dancing, sports, movies, and school. Years from now you'll find this potential businessman still hanging out at K.A.T.

By sports and journey men are known.

RUTH COHEN

4232 Wyalusing Ave. Com.

From Friday 2:15 'til Monday morning at 8:45, are the happiest hours of Ruth's week. It's during that time she enjoys movies, shows, bicycling, and bowling. Ruth loves good times and going out, but hopes to settle down in a Civil Service position after graduation.

A little work, a little play.

FRANCES COLANERO

6532 Girard Ave. Com.

Blessed is the bride that the sun shines on.

MARIE COLLELUORI

4287 Leidy Ave. Com.
A.A., S.A., Bowling Club.

A certain J.J.H. seems to be holding "Mac's" thoughts for the future. Meanwhile her time is occupied with bowling, dancing, and skating at the Adelphia. When the bell rings at 2:15 it produces as big a smile on "Mac's" face as when she thinks of that new last name.

For whom the bell tolls.

You haven't lived until you've heard "Verdi" render his version of the immortal "Polonaise." Plans to go to University of Miami. He'll be one dentist who isn't "always down in the mouth." Attending class parties and bowling are his favorite pastimes.

IRVING GREENBAUM

1740 N. Aberdeen St. Ac.

If you've ever wondered who the 2nd fellow getting on the G Bus is, we'll tell you it's always "Irv." He can usually be found "guzzling sodas" at Synder's "Solarium." Likes basketball, baseball, and blondes. Hopes to be a C.P.A. and coin a million some day.

Money is the root of all evil.

BERNARD GREENBERG

1801 Georges Lane Ac.
S.A., A.A., Basketball.

"Greeze's" big woes are teacher-trouble and athlete's feet. He has some terrific plans for evading the draft—all 6'1" of him! The basketball court is "Bernie's" second home these days. As far as femmes go, he loves 'em all—especially those in skirts below the knee.

The wolf doth grin before he barketh.

LOUIS GRIFF

5644 Woodbine Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Aide, A.A. Rep., Victory Corps, Boys' Patrol.

You can always count on "Lou" for his famous tall stories. Sitting in Eddy's listening to his favorite records is sheer heaven to him. "Lou" advocates that we do away with "O" chorus. He intends to study law.

Joking and humour are pleasant and often of extreme utility.

BARBARA PRICILLA
CROSBY

350 N. 62nd St. Ac.
A.A., S.A., Library Aide,

There's a long long trail a winding.

PEARLINE CUTLER

2420 N. 56th St. Com.

"Dolly," our lady of adventure, is going to travel to all the romantic cities of the world before she settles down with that good-looking 6 foot gentleman. Meanwhile the movies and good music are the source of "Dolly's" enjoyment.

Marriage is a matter of more worth than to be dealt in by attorneyship.

RUTH DALAHAN

1304 Conestoga St. Ac.
A.A., S.A.

To play the piano is "Ruthie's" main ambition, but to eat Italian spaghetti and gloat over her nylon stockings are her main delights. When not thinking about how to destroy all Latin composition books, she reads and does a little day dreaming.

Oh! good my Lord, no Latin!

NANCY DAVENPORT

5947 Nassau Road Com.
S.A., A.A., Color Guard,

That certain tall, dark, and green-eyed boy who must be Irish, is the one that finds favor in the eyes of "Nancy with the laughing face." "Nanc" is currently seen with "Bob" at M.B.S., although she still finds time for dancing, swimming, and listening to 950 Club.

The hand that hath made you fair hath made you good.

BERNARD W. GROSKY

1708 N. 42nd St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Alternate, Victory Corps, Track Team, Cross Country, A.A. Rep., Vocal Ensemble.

"Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Women" is "Grotz's" staunch advocacy. He's one of those "rare" individuals in O.H.S. who detests homework. He'll find ways to get out of work, and doesn't exert himself to earn a living.

Some think the world is made for fun and frolic.

NORMAN GROSS

1707 N. Ruby St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Cabinet, Victory Corps, Patrol, A.A. Rep., Delegate, Record Book Advertising Staff.

We'll long remember "Nocky," who was always misunderstood by teachers. The "exec's" undying passion is the study of Chemistry. You can usually find him in "Ye Olde Nash" ready for pinochle. The future will find him a successful C.P.A.

Trouble seeks the innocent.

JOSEPH HAAS

5737 Woodbine Ave. Ac.

I know what pathway leads to popularity.

"Dev" is planning to go to college when she graduates, but meanwhile a certain good-looking "Gob" has her very busy writing letters in red ink. Her fancies are many including dancing, steaks, and movies, while her ability to play the piano and phonograph almost outdo her love of eating.

'Tis substantial happiness to eat.

ANGELINA DESIDERIO

5418 Pennsgrove St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Aide.

"Angie," our stenographer-to-be, is one who finds enjoyment in typing, but not in waiting in the meat line. Crocheting, embroidering, cooking, and singing are just a few of "Angie's" abilities to make a good wife. The rest of this busy-bee's time is spent in painting and in the movies.

The still sweet fall of music far away.

ARLENE DICKLER

1724 Georges Lane Ac.
S.A., A.A., Alternate, Aide.

To get out of school and do heaven only knows what is "Dick's" main ambition. Perhaps she'll be driving that Cadillac convertible or maybe just eating ice cream and doodling. This happy-go-lucky girl likes to be found in the Senior Room because it's better than being in class, and loathes those 8th periods.

Eyes are the window of the soul.

RALPH HAZELTON

Only time will tell whether "Phil" will meet that certain man who's 6'2" with eyes of blue who reminds her of Gregory Peck. Meanwhile her pastime consists of bowling and tennis and trying to think up ways which will remedy that annoying feeling of getting up in the morning. Someday my prince will come.

EDITH DOLIN

3950 Wyalusing Ave. Com.
S.A., A.A., Cheerleader, 12A Banker.

To get out of O.H.S. with flying colors and then wait for the right guy to come along is "Edie's" main ambition in life. She is either eating and dancing to the 950 Club or hanging out at P.M. with M.C.T. Give her men, knockbuckles, and gum, and "Edie" is in paradise.

Yelled like all possessed.

SHIRLEY DORFMAN

2723 N. 45th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., A.A. Representative, President, Dramatic Club.

That certain master sergeant seems to be causing "Shirl" to make nice bangs. To get on the other side of a microphone and say her piece is one of "Shirl's" sincerest ambitions. "Shirl's" delightful smiles can always be seen at 2:15 at Oxford Ave. exit.

Sugar and spice and everything nice.

ELEANOR DOSWELL

5750 Filbert St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Library Aide.

If she becomes a surgical nurse, rides a horse, and learns to swim, "Ruthie" will have attained full self-contentment. Meanwhile making paper mache masks and puppets keep her busy. Wherever there's a good movie show or music, you're sure to find "Ruthie."

Honor will come through thine continued diligence.

SEYMOUR KARR

CHARLES LEVIN

5629 Lebanon Ave.

Mech. Arts

S.A., A.A., Record Book Staff.

"Chick," whose claim to fame is that he can whistle, dislikes zero and eighth periods, all that comes between—perhaps because it keeps him from dreaming about his future. "Chick" wants to join the Foreign Legion and own his own harem.

Whistle while you work.

LEONARD LEVIN

1001 N. 67th St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., A.A. Representative, Alternate, Delegate.

Leonard's thoughts are filled mostly with dreams of becoming a millionaire, surrounded by hundreds of women, and huge amounts of food and pepsi-cola. That's quite a dream, Leonard. We certainly hope it doesn't take too long to make a million dollars.

Give him this money and these notes.

HERMAN H. LUTZNER

1745 N. Peach St. Ac.

"Herm" obviously seems obsessed with no other subject than "Rhani." She really seems to fill his mind. His reason—"Rhani" is a most wonderful pastime. On the side, "Herm" hopes to become a big-time business man. But pleasure before business, eh?

The man that loves and laughs must sure do well.

HELEN FEENEY

432 N. 52nd St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Hall Patrol, Bowling Club, Leaders Club, Swimming Club.

432 N. 52nd St. Com.

S.A., A.A.

"Rena," a would-be stenographer, can be found hanging out at Doc's while dreaming of her one and only. She likes drawing, downing milkshakes, and of course, men. But don't burden her with too much homework—that plus fresh kids just doesn't appeal to this gal.

Until my true love comes.

ELAINE FERDMAN

4309 Otter St. Com.

S.A., A.A.

When not indulging in her favorite pastimes of walking and hiking, "E's" usually found at home or at a friend's house with the gang. Dates with a certain someone, parties, good books, and movies all rate high with this gal. "E's" ambition is to get a good job and eventually marry.

Love makes two hearts one.

BARBARA FERTEL

2223 Georges Lane Ac.

S.A., A.A., Aide to Miss Masland.

If one day you chance upon "Babs" with a broad smile on her face, you'll realize that she's just broken another heart. Breaking men's hearts is "Bab's" hobby, and her leading ability. She delights in having her own way and in frequenting a "certain spot in Atlantic City."

VINCENT MALLORY

5951 Vine St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Basketball Team, Baseball Team, Football Team.

"Mousie's" special aptitude is for the English courses here at Overbrook. Off the record, Vince echoes the cries of his fellow classmen, "Bring on the Girls!" As an undertaker, he'll make his place in life.

What's a table richly spread, without a woman at its head?

DOMENICK MARINOZZI, JR.

1114 Fitzgerald St. Auto.

S.A., A.A., Boys' Patrol.

"Nick's" ambition is to become a good airplane mechanic, so it's easy to understand why he likes to spend his time around engines. When not deeply involved in mechanics, "Nick" likes the idea of girls and good food, with music in the background.

The measure of a man's life is the well spending of it, and not the length.

EDWARD MASER

5349 Turner St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Boys' A.A. Representative.

Although "Hank" tries to dodge those pushups in gym, he is no shirker when it comes to playing basketball, which is his favorite pastime. Chess is another game which is right in his line. "Hank" hopes to go on to college to prepare for his future as a doctor.

Every man at thirty is either a fool or a physician.

JOHN A. MASINO

714 N. 65th St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Commercial Office Aide.

Hiking, camping — yes, roaming about in the great outdoors is recreation of which "Jack" never tires. But when it comes to girls, don't even mention it; for "Jack" is a woman hater. We're sure some girl will change his mind some day, but right now he looks forward to being an engineer.

Girls are not a hobby, they're a calamity.

ANN-LEE FITZHUGH
1335 N. 60th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Library Aide,
Big Sisters.

When not monopolizing Alexander Graham Bell's invention, Ann delights in making others beautiful. She hopes some day, in fact, to become a beautician. Although they don't add weight to her slender form, Ann's quite fond of milkshakes. She hangs out any place there's fun—this pleasant lass.
Ambitious past all thinking.

ANNA ELIZABETH FORD
4523 Brown St. Com.
Hockey, Basketball, Volley Ball, Round Robin, S.A., A.A., Leaders Club, Soft Ball, Girls' Patrol.

"Nancy," a would-be secretary, delights in listening to the 950 Club. She's often found at home, singing "Oh How I Hate To Get Up In The Morning!" Her interests are the theater and chocolate sundaes.
Heaven will protect the working girl.

DOLORES FORTUNATO
983 N. 66th St. Dist. Ed.
S.A., A.A.

Girls, moonless nights, and being alone bother "Dee," who prefers boys' company, particularly Jack's. "Dee's" ambition is "joining this man's navy." When not at Pedicone's Hogie Shop, she's writing letters, day-dreaming, or dancing, all things in which cute "Dee" excels.
Man's life is ambition; woman's life is man.

JEAN FOWLER
524 N. Wanamaker St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Jeannie" dreams of the day that Overbrook installs escalators to the fifth floor. She can be identified by her familiar comment, "It's immaterial to me!" Off the record, this future secretary can be found indulging in the practice of the culinary arts and skating.
Sweets to the sweet.

VICTOR MAY
516 N. Allison St. Mech. Art
A.A., S.A., Track Team, Cross Country, Basketball Team.

Topping the list of swell guys ranks "Vic." When he isn't playing basketball, you'll find him taking pictures. "Vic" likes short girls, but most any kind will do. The "Camphor's Basketball Gym" is preparing "Vic" for his ultimate ambition; a Physical Ed. instructor.

Humour has justly been regarded as the finest perfection of poetic genius.

MARTIN MISHER
52nd & Montgomery Ave. Ac.
Alternate, A.A. Representative, A.A., S.A.

In spite of the fact that "Marty" doesn't like eating, we're sure he'll manage to get along successfully in the world. He is preparing for a career as a commercial artist, and anyone who shuns math finals has our vote. Yes, we almost forgot, he likes vanilla ice cream.

Art is power.

JEROME OCHRACH
5436 Berks St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Track and Cross Country, Delegate, Alternate, A.A. Representative.

"Jerry" represents one of the "talents" of the class. Whether it be singing, jesting, or "wolfing," "Ack-Ack" comes out on top. This "Nelson Eddy II" aspires to become a concert singer. "Jerry" is fond of females, but claims that he always gets stuck on "blind dates."

Sing away sorrow, cast away care.

MILTON OKUN
5643 Arlington St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Chess Club, Publisher of Class paper.

In "Milt" we have the "Radical" of the class of June '46. "Milt's" favorite pastime is meditating, which is clearly reflected by his original ideas in everything he says and does. Painting is his special talent; but strange as his thoughts, "Milt's" ambition is to sing radio commercials.

Great master dreamer.

ANITA FRANK
5231 Berks St. Com.
S.A., A.A., A.A. Rep.,
Bowling Club, Gym Aide.

If you want to impress this lively, would-be stenographer, don't call her "Sis," for this nickname is her pet peeve. On the other hand, mention bubble gum or food, and you've made a friend. As for men, this gal remarks, "I love 'em all."

She's pretty to walk with and witty to talk with.

JACQUELINE FRATKIN
6110 Christian St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Record Book
Staff, Beacon Reporter.

"Jackie's" an individual who sports a duo personality. With strangers she is cool and reserved; with friends, she lets her hair down. This serio-comic dotes on sophisticated dresses, Chopin, and tall, dark, attractive men who smoke pipes. Her hobby's interior decorating; her favorite pastime, rhumbaing.

Here's a heart for any fate.

EVELYN FREIBERG
128 E. Baltimore Ave. Ac.
S.A. A.A., Literary Staff of Record Book, Aide, Gym Locker Aide, Senior Show.

The slim lively lass who brightens the Senior Room with her eager laugh and exuberant personality, likes Class Parties and 6 foot males. Genial "Evie's" ambition, besides college, is having fun while she's young.

O, I am stabbed with laughter!

CLAIRE FRIEDMAN
4201 Viola St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Oh, how I despise homework!" "Bunny" continually laments. Reading is her favorite pastime, but she manages to find time for dancing, bowling, and advising others in their love affairs. Whenever she's in a pensive mood, and she's chewing gum when she is, "Bunny" admits that her only senior ambition is to graduate.

Good advice is beyond price.

KARL O'LESSKER
5200 Montgomery Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Ass't Ed. Record Book, Beacon Literary,
Astronomy Club.

In Karl are the beginnings of another Wm. Shakespeare. The Records' assistant editor is happy when writing or admiring beauty, wherever it may be or whatever color sweater it may wear. Karl loves life and enjoys kidding around in Latin. With his sense of humor, he's sure to be a journalistic success.

Poet's food is love and fame.

NORTON OLSHIN
4226 Penngrove St. Com.-Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Offer a well-done steak smothered in onions, and you're sure to hear from "Norty." This typist and expert bookkeeper wants to study accounting and become a C.P.A. "Norty" is just like the rest of his brethren in that his special like is plenty of women.

He is a man of an unbounded stomach.

ALFRED ORR
1413 N. Alden St. Mech. Arts
A.A., S.A., Football.

"Alfie," one of our football heroes, hopes to be a high-powered salesman. He's especially talented at playing the radio, phonograph, and piano. "Alfie" is crazy about vanilla milk-shakes, and football; like the rest of us he detests zero period, split lunch, and eighth period.

This is the period of my ambition.

ALBERT PARKER
5618 Cherry St. Elec.
A.A., S.A.

"Parker" is dreaming of the day when O.H.S. will be the proud owner of a clean lunchroom and an abundance of younger teachers. Until that day comes, however, he busies himself with playing pool and baseball. Girls, too, are all right with him.

Thine apparel has proclaimed thy excellent character.

JEAN GALLI

1623 N. Felton St. Dist. Ed.
S.A., A.A.

"Jeanne" doesn't attempt to hide her main ability, flirting. She engages in this form of coquetry at her two favorite hangouts, Pedicone's Hogie Shop and the Crystal Ballroom. However, a certain blond sailor in the Philippines, with whom she corresponds, has completely captured this petite one's heart.

A wink for every boy.

MILDRED GEFFEN

5329 Euclid Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Honor Aide, Library Aide.

Finding pleasure in singing louder than the radio is just one of "Millie's" idiosyncrasies. She also likes to knit socks three sizes too large. Her friends flock around "Millie" before assemblies 'cause she always has the latest gossip to divulge. Ambition? College.

Speech is better than silence.

SHIRLEY GELB

5363 Berks St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Bond and Stamp Rep., Aide.

Wherever the gang is, you'll find artistic "Sher," dreaming of her future ambition of landscaping or engaging in her favorite pastime of counting the stripes on the living room paper. Far from being dull herself, "Sher" is most attracted to facetious people.

And the glory of a garden, it shall never pass away.

IRENE GENTILE

5125 Master St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Banker, Aide,
Round Robin, Bowling, Ice Skating.

"Renee" is our idea of a fellow's dream girl. Not only is she easy on the eyes, but she can cook, take stenog., bowl, and ice skate. "Renee" prefers listening to the 950 Club and drinking cup after cup of hot coffee—"caffendish," isn't she?

She who fills the heart, fills the eye.

THOMAS PARKER

5026 Ogden St. Auto.
S.A., A.A.

"Tommie" is an outdoor man who goes in for football, baseball, hunting and camping. His future position is that of an airplane mechanic. Many of his leisure hours are spent in bowling. As for special likes he replies—"Girls, of course!"

Bachelor's fares, bread and kisses.

JACK PERNATIN

4153 Cambridge St.
Ac. Agr. Arts
S.A., A.A.

"Farmer Jack" has an ability, unusual in O.H.S., of plowing a straight furrow. When Jack isn't messing around with earth, you'll find him eating, sleeping, or "hanging-out" at Bernstein's Pharmacy. Jack's ambition is to become an agricultural economist, and he is already well on his way.

Each man reaps his own farm.

WALTER PHILPOT

3921 Mt. Vernon St.
S.A., A.A.

Girls who think they know all the answers better beware of "Walt," 'cause they are his chief dislike. This fellow's a terrific cartoonist but aspires to be an engineer. When not sleeping, "Walt's" at the Prestige working at his three greatest pleasures: finance, dance, and romance.

*For his sleep was very light,

POPLOW

5431 Berks St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Jr. Beacon
Staff, Pres. of Chess Club,
Capt. Chess Team, Tribunal.

School system beware! "Pop's" a genius who objects to the present standard of marking. This kid's a "whiz" at math; and measures up to that title at pinochle, chess, and women. "Stan's" not sure of his future; but with his brains and hair, he's bound to set the world on fire.

Ambition has no risk.

NETTIE GENTNER

5330 Euclid Ave. Com.

S.A., A.A., Beacon Business Staff, Dr. Baker's Aide, Honor Aide.

"Net" is very popular because of her ability to laugh at even the corniest jokes. We marvel that her hangout is anywhere there's food 'cause her svelte form certainly does her proud. Music and football games are "Net's" special likes.

I eat and eat, I swear.

KATHERINE GIBSON

5321 Vine St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Leaders Club, Office Aide, Assistant Gym Teacher, A.A. Representative.

Physics, food, and humorous fellows are all well-liked by "Kathy." Her spare time is spent sewing and seeing good movies. Her fine sewing ability indicates that "Kathy" will be a famous dressmaker-designer.

Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

BEVERLY GINSBERG

5732 Oxford St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Parade Night, Dancing Club, Advertising Staff.

Five-feet-two, eyes of blue! That's "Bev" in a nutshell. This sweet Miss is expert at looking innocent and talking endlessly. "Bev's" desire is to see all those wonderful places of which she's heard.

Thine eyes are like the deep blue boundless heaven.

PEARL GITOMER

5104 Diamond St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Big Sister.

"Music in the morning that puts you back to sleep" is not well thought of by "Pearley." Perhaps dull martial music puts her out of the mood for O.H.S., her favorite hangout. She eats triple-decker sandwiches with gusto while contemplating her ambition of travelling around the world.

A pearl of great price.

ROBERT L. POWELL

1222 N. 65th St. Mech. Arts

S.A., A.A., Cabinet Member, Football, Chairman of Lunch Room Committee.

If the radios that he is especially capable of repairing came through with his praises, they would blast about what a super "Beacon" salesman and swell guy "Bob" is. Next to being at Marian's, he enjoys class parties, and fried chicken. "Bob" hopes to find his fortune in radio technology.

No lady is so fair as mine.

ALBERT PRIMAVERA

720 N. 65th St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Band, Comm. Aide.

In "Al" we have a boy who is reaching his ambition early in life; graduating from O.H.S. Al's a "sax" player and popular record fiend. Furthermore, he adores Sunday driving, dancing, and skating. Just mention Monday mornings or zero periods to "Al" and you'll hit a sour note.

Music is the eye of the ear.

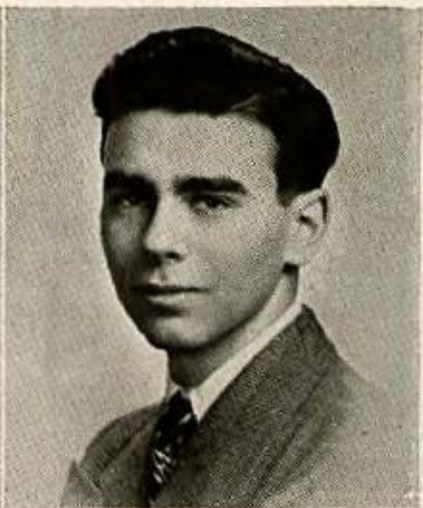

LEWIS A. RAIBLEY

5622 Stewart St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Band, Orchestra.

That trumpet blasting harmoniously above all the others in the O.H.S. band and orchestra, belongs to our own "Bus." "Lew" loves music along with milkshakes and girls. Strangely enough, this Gabriel II wants to be a mortician. Be careful not to blow your horn during business hours, "Lew"!

Music hath charms to soothe the savage beast.

JEROLD RICHMAN

4903 Parkside Ave. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Baseball.

Miami University, make way for "Jerry"! This terrific pinochle player can play an A-1 game of baseball too. "Jerry's" greatest desire is a new car. His special like is girls in general, but particularly one. If you're looking for "Jer" just locate "Ye old Nash" for there he will be.

Patience, and shuffle the cards.

Dor*

ROSE GLASSBERG

882 N. Holly St. Ac.
Beacon Staff, Ass't Teacher to Music Department.

In addition to knowing her P's and Q's, this gal knows her Bach and Brahms. "Rosie's" ambition, as those who frequent the Senior Room know, is to become a music teacher. This talented pianist favors baseball, football, and Beethoven sonatas. Whence you owe this strange intelligence?

ANNE M. GOFF

6003 Jefferson St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Color Guard,
Delegate, Bowling Club.

Charming Anne, of the red hair and attractive smile, has a good chance of becoming a cover girl. However, her own chosen field of endeavor is nursing. She has no time for conceited people, but more than enough for the Navy, good music, and hanging out at Delores's! What is beautiful is good.

CHARLOTTE GOLDBERG

5644 Gainor Rd. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Record Art
Staff.

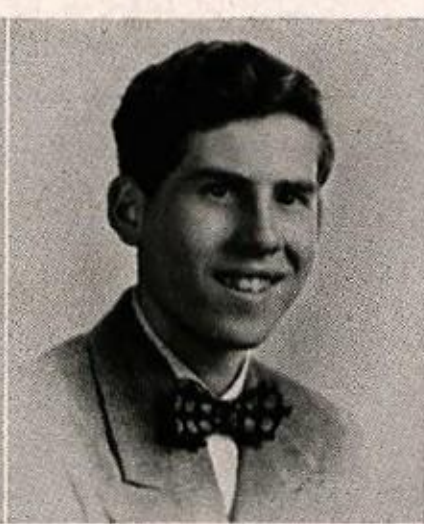

Wherever gaiety abounds rest assured that vivacious "Char," of the golden hair and giggly laugh, is causing it. At Wynnefield's "Eddy's" she's heard telling friends her two-fold ambition, marrying a sailor, and acquiring dimples. "Char's" a gal for whom men make life worthwhile. Laughter is sunshine in the house.

LORRAINE GOLDMAN

4537 Marvine St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Library Club,
Dancing Club, Library Aide.

Some day "Lorry" will be on the other side of the prof's desk, for her ambition—you've guessed it—is to be a teacher. Meanwhile she'll bide her time dancing, frequenting the movies, drumming on the piano, and eating gobs of chow mein. Silence is golden.

*The best of luck

GERALD M. ROBBINS

Kevon Arms Apts. Ac.
52nd & Montgomery
S.A., A.A.

Wine, women, and song sum up "Jerry's" likes. This one-half of a set of twins, hates to be introduced as such; but abhors even worse being referred to as "Bubbles Jr." "Jerry" optimistically hopes to go to Penn State, and then spend the rest of his life riding around in convertibles. Life's to be a dizzy world.

IRWIN ROBBINS

Kevon Arms Apts. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Track Team.

U. S. Mint beware: "Bubbles'" ambition is to own one-half of you. Like his twin brother, he has a special fondness for convertibles. Irwin also craves lovable, gullible girls. When he isn't playing pinochle or billiards, you'll find "Bubbles" in "Ye old Nash." The best foundation in the world is money.

JEROME ROSE

5740 Hazel Ave. Ac.-Com.
S.A., A.A., Cross Country.

Why does "Jerry" have such an aversion to the mothers of his gals? This graduate's extra hours are divided among bicycling, work, and the S.A.R. frat house. "Jerry" claims that his only desire greater than becoming a C.P.A. is to be handsome. Fishing for compliments, "Jer"? The best of luck is always waiting on you.

PAUL ROSENTHAL

5319 Berks St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Track.

If you've a scientific problem to be solved, just bring it to Paul and dismiss your worries. This one-half of the Rosenthal twins is also an expert at swimming and loafing, but dislikes social science intensely. Paul is undertaking dentistry 'cause he always wanted to build bridges. For science is like virtue, its own exceeding great reward.

ALICE GOLUB

5115 Viola St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Library Aide.

If you're looking for Alice in a hurry, we'd advise you to try Doc's or P.M. If she cannot be found in either place, could be she's out driving with her latest date. Yes, that's one of Alice's favorite pastimes during the hours stolen from her secretarial preparation.

Good company in a journey makes the way seem shorter.

WILMA GOTSHALL

1620 N. 55th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Yes, it's true! This gal's dream man is Bing Crosby, and she actually dislikes "The Voice." Wilma's post-graduation ambition is operating a switchboard. Her spare time is filled with many pleasant hours devoted to skating, dancing, and swimming. But no Frank Sinatra for her; she'd rather snuggle down with a good book.

A good book is the best of friends.

ELEANOR GOTTLOB

5638 Lebanon Ave. Com.
S.A., A.A., Dancing Club, Leaders Club, Honor Aide.

"Elny" admires the opposite sex but dislikes fresh men, so watch out, boys! Her favorite pastimes are dancing and taking dictation at 120 words a minute? "Elny" hopes the future finds her a prosperous accountant with a little spare time to spend at Tecker's Alley.

Love is the salt of life.

RHODA GREENBERG

5443 Gainor Road Ac.
S.A., A.A., Honor Aide, Big Sisters' Club, Alternate, Round Robin Club, Library Aide.

According to "Rho," the sweetest music in the world is played every 45 minutes when that enchanted bell rings. Her favorite Shangri-La is the famed Senior Room. She wants to become a Laboratory Technician and do herself proud as a test-tube artiste!

Open my ears to music.

WILLIAM S. ROSENTHAL
5319 Berks St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Track.

Just give him a swimming pool in which to enjoy his favorite sport and a harem of beautiful women, and "Bill" will be happy. This kid's aiming at hitting six feet; but being as cute as he is, the extra inches will just be a further asset. "Bill" is capable of giving lessons at driving one-handed.

Very small the very great are.

MAURICE ROSENZWEIG
4219 Otter St. Mech. Arts
S.A., A.A.

To "make a million" is "Mut's" ambition. Of course women with well-developed personalities are his special likes. How well they go together! We all hope that he reaches his goal, has a beautiful mansion and a wife—Ah, what a life!

I've got a pocketful of dreams.

DONALD A. ROSS
2126 Wanamaker St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Delegate, Class Cabinet, Advisory Council, Leader of Swing Band.

Someday along the "great white way" will be seen in glittering lights, "Broadside" Ross and his band." At present he can be found at the Musician's Union, local 77, mooching Chesterfields from fellow music-maker F.S.

Come on and hear, come on and hear, Alexander's Rag-time Band.

BURTON ROTHSTEIN
5413 Woodcrest Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Trying to get into Cornell is "Burt's" lifetime ambition. Playing piano, eating, and driving put him right on the beam. "The Senior Room is a terrific place but I wish I could spend more time there."

Everyone is the sun of his own work.

SHARLENE GRIFFIN

910 N. May St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Hockey Club, Round Robin, Drill Squad, Volleyball, Basketball, Girls' Patrol, Softball, Assistant Gym Teacher, A.A. Board, Leader's Club.

"Griff" is quite at home "at home" listening to the 950 Club. In addition to her numerous athletic activities she loves a hot session of rug cutting. Could sip sodas all day.

Truly a sport in the full sense of the word.

MARCIA LOU HABELSON

5306 Arlington St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Banker's Aide, Aide to Miss Clothier, A.A. Rep.

"Marcy" prides herself on being kind to dumb animals, especially the opposite sex! She hopes to become a Medical Technician. "Marcy's" favorite vision finds her seated in the famed Warwick Room surrounded by scads of males. May all your dreams come true!

A diller a dollar, a 10-o'clock scholar.

PAULINE M. HADFIELD

2138 N. 62nd St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Swimming Club, A.A. Rep., Gym Leaders' Club.

"Elsie" wants to graduate and ride around on a fire engine, believe it or not! She spends her leisure hours eating hot dogs, riding horses, and loving the whole U. S. Navy. "Elsie" thinks that arrogant, self-righteous people should be abolished from the earth.

Be merry and be wise.

ELIZABETH HAIGH

539 N. Conestoga St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Swimming Club.

"Betty" thinks that biking, dancing, and reading are three wonderful ways to spend her leisure hours, rare as they may be. After graduating from her beloved O.H.S. Betty hopes to settle down at a good position.

Silence sweeter is than any speech.

J. SIDNEY ROWLAND

5609 Stewart St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Band, Orchestra.

The band and orchestra will suffer a great loss when "Syd" graduates. When he isn't practicing, you'll find him drinking milkshakes along with his favorite foods. "Syd" goes for music in a big way, and he hopes to ultimately become a music teacher.

Music is the universal language of mankind.

LOUIS RUSS

5630 Wyndale Ave. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Baseball Team.

Between grabbing a quick smoke at the Prestige and stopping in the Dungeon, our boy "Whitey" is kept pretty busy. Our blond giant boasts of his ability to play a "mean" game of billiards. "Whitey" asks, "Have you ever seen Philadelphia from Georges Hill at night?"

Who is bred among wolves will learn to howl.

ROBERT SAIDEL

1770 N. Aberdeen St. Ac.

S.A., A.A.

This future big business man spends most of his spare time playing pinochle. He dislikes catty girls but admits that it's a different story when it comes to nice women. Since he missed escalator service he hopes that it will come to O.H.S. in the near future.

For the Love of Money.

FRANK J. SAVINE

5425 Lansdowne Ave.

S.A., A.A., Aide.

"Anchors Aweigh" is "Reds'" theme song. Yes, sir, join the navy and see the world is what he says. Right now he does his sailing over a coke at the confectionery. "Reds" likes sports and is good at them too. As for girls?—Bring 'em on!

But the ships, they carry me long, long ways, and draw far places near.

MELBA HARMON
319 N. 60th St. Ac.
Jr. Beacon Staff, Volley Ball.

We've found her!—God's gift to teachers! Our little "Shorty" claims that cheats are her pet peeve! The straight and narrow path will get her places as an elementary school teacher. She delights in dancing, pretty clothes, and gobs of ice cream! Good Luck to you, Melba!

Good things come in small packages.

JOAN ELLEN HARRIS
5745 Nassau Road Ac.
S.A., A.A., A.A. Rep., Honor Aide, French Club, Record Book Staff.

In the quiet of a class room you'll hear the faint sound of carrots being nibbled. She's at it again—this girl with the adorable dimples. She wants to be an advertising woman, but won't tell what she's going to advertise. With that swell personality and sense of humor we know she'll succeed.

Here's to the charmer whose dimples we prize.

SELMA HARRISON
5350 Arlington St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Bowling Club, Aide, Library Aide.

"Sel" wants to travel and see all there is to be seen in the whole wide world. (May we take this opportunity to wish her a long life!) The man of her dreams can be classified as the Cornel Wilde type! This gal has planned a slightly terrific future!

Love thy sports.

RAYMOND J. SAVINE
5905 Turner St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Can you believe it? This boy actually dislikes our fairer sex. "Ray" would rather join the Navy to see the world than be bothered by a bevy of females at home. You'll usually find this card fiend at Rube's gas station.

Women and music should never be dated.

JAMES SCHLIPIF
1415 Peach St. Elec.
S.A., A.A.

"Jim" is not the greatest admirer of long assemblies in this fair school. And if some way could be found to eliminate the study of English, "Jim" would be quite willing to spend a few more years here. However, electricity and females are his prime interests right now.

Oh! The English language.

FRANK SCHULMAN
1858 Georges Lane Ac.
S.A., A.A., Swing Band, Football Team.

The "joint" jumps when Frank's around. The kid is a terrific musician and dancer; and doesn't have far to go to fulfill his ambition of becoming the greatest man in the world. His favorite pastime as well as his joy of life is one and the same: Females!

Say it with music.

DONALD S. SCHULTZ
2304 N. 51st St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

"Dee's" favorite pastime is trying vainly to contrive a plausible excuse for getting out of homeroom. In his leisure time he dreams of his future ambition to own the other half of the U. S. Mint. "Donny" can always be found in "Ye old Nash," thinking up new lines for those gullible girls.

The same old line with a new clothespin.

"Jan" has a dual ambition: to go to Sun Valley, and to marry the boss's handsome son. She looks forward to winter and those ice skating days with N.I.—"Jan's" usually headed for "Moe's," where the mob meets for malteds.

Your heart's desires be with you.

GEORGE SHAPIRO

5317 Euclid Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Basketball

ball Team.

"Pierre" is the strong, silent type. Our future pool champion has his eye on Penn State. George considers eating and sleeping a waste of time. Girls who bear any resemblance to Betty Grable make life worthwhile.

Leader of men, follower of women.

WILLIAM HOWARD SHEPPARD

Hot jazz or the soothing classics—either one rates high with "Bill." He dances and rides well, and enjoys playing pinochle, hiking, and seeing a good play or movie. He's sure to meet with success in the future.

But they whom truth and wisdom lead can gather honey from a weed.

MORRIS SHUSTER

522 S. Melville St. Ind.
S.A., A.A., Track, Cross

"So tell me, what's new?" asks our music lover, "Moe." If you need your heart patched, go right to Moe, for this Don Juan claims to be skilled in affairs of the heart. Where can you find him? Why, at Snyder's of course.

Alas! the love of women! It is known to be a lovely and a fearful thing.

"Shirl" thinks that green olives, red ink, and a certain Petty Officer 3/c are strictly super! She aspires to be a commercial artist in the near future. This lovely can easily be identified with her familiar war chant, "Couldn't you die?"

Sweetness, the key to a man's heart.

RUTH JACOBSON
5821 Woodcrest Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Her lieutenant, her weekends, and herself rank high with "Ruthie." As for spinach, she'll cry, "Take It Away, Take It Away, Take It Away." Music, moonlight and delicious victuals keep this gal in her prime.

To thine own self be true.

HELEN JAKSTIS
535 N. 63rd St. Dist. Ed.

Helen dreams of a rugged, 6 ft. blond, to take her riding in a streamlined red convertible. Speaking of dreams reminds us that high in her list of joys is sleep. Helen's pet peeve is a date who arrives late; so take warning fellows!

Let us have laughter and mirth.

CHARLOTTE KAPLAN

God heals, and the doctor takes the fee.

THOMAS STANGO

"Stang's" theme song is, "I want to marry a beautiful girl who will support me." "Stang" isn't lazy, but he spends a great deal of his time doing nothing. As for special likes, he replies, "Hubba, Hubba."

It is as easy to marry a rich woman as a poor woman.

GILBERT STRAUSS

JAMES SULLIVAN

Just because "Jimmy" doesn't like working doesn't mean he won't have a happy and prosperous life. His loafing is just a way of saving up energy for those games of he is so skillful at all athletics.

I love the sport well.

"Randy," the swell fellow with the slow grin, intends to travel south of the border. As for abilities, he can do almost anything. "Randy" likes swimming, playing records, and talking to sociable people. Girls who talk a lot are the bane of his existence.

THERESA MOSES

6056 Vine St. Ac.

Hey, hide the ice cream! "Al" is coming! Yep, here's one future typist who's going to spend her time in an ice cream parlor when she gets out of school. But those conceited folks better steer clear, 'cause conceit and cream don't mix in "Al's" temperament.

For the meek shall inherit the earth.

DIANE RESNICK

5720 Woodbine Ave. Ac.

This isn't a hint to universities or anything, but Diane's first ambition is to be a college co-ed. Following, a trip around the world with "Hubby" would be just perfect. "Di's" preferences include attractive clothes, cocker spaniels, and rumba-ing.

Joan has abilities too numerous to mention. She loves sundaes, and football. "Joanie" hopes to be a laboratory technician. She spends many hours writing to a certain sailor. The peevish of this fun-loving Miss are homework, and people who say "Oh really; no O'Riley."

Letter writing, that most delightful way of wasting time.

CLAIRE MAE ROSEN

5625 Lebanon Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Asst. Ed. of Beacon, Alternate, Record Book Literary Staff.

Where there's Beverly and Marilyn, there's Claire; and where there's Claire there's usually profuse talking; but we, the seniors, love her for it. And speaking of love, all is serene when Claire is home near the phonograph writing those letters to Richie.

Beauty is power, a smile is its sword.

PHYLLIS M. ROSENTHAL

4135 Leidy Ave. Com.

"Phyl" just loves ice cream and Gregory Peck. She is content to be someone's secretary until Mr. Tall D. Handsome comes along. Dull parties, Bing Crosby, and gooey cake are taboo with her. She's grateful to Don Ameche for inventing the telephone.

Oh me, when shall I marry?

IDA JOY ROTH

Here's a girl that's sweet as sugar. "Ev" is a music and math fan, a funny combination at that. She's a whiz at the organ, and an artist at letter writing to that "one and only wearer of the bell-bottoms." To be somebody's secretary and then someone else's wife, are her plans for the future.

Carry a letter to my love.

CARMELA RUSSO

S.A., A.A., Office Aide.

If you meet a sweet little girl "waiting for the train to come in" you can be quite sure that it's "Mimmie." The train will bring her one and only "My Jack," this most important thing in Miriam's life. Music and typing also rate, but getting up in the morning and homework are poisonous.

He seems so near and yet so far.

MIMI SCHEER

5600 Overbrook Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Honor Aide, Advisory Council, Sec. of Council, Record Book Staff.

If you were hit by a light blue Nash whizzing around O.H.S. at fifty miles-per-hour, blame "Mimi." "Mimi" goes in for dancing, driving, and sleeping. College followed by marriage soon after, are next on "Mimi's" agenda.

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.

*She who collects stamps,

FAYE SCHWARTZ
4237 Girard Ave. Com.

"I wanna get married," is our gal Faye's familiar war chant. She specifies her preference for tall, blond, and definitely handsome men. When not dreaming of Alan Ladd, she's usually found in ye old Senior Room, having one of her five-minute chats on the telephone.

Marriage is honorable in all.

BETTY SCIARRETTA
614 Wynnewood Road Com.

"Margie" wants to be healthy, wealthy, and wise. To her the telephone is heaven's gift. Homework and zero shift are to be done away with. "Margie" thinks that the Senior Room should be a 5-period subject.

The time has come to talk of many things.

SELMA B. SHEFFIT

Sweetness runs high.

JANE E. SLAUGHTER
5631 Arch St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Jane is going to be an embalmer! One thing sure, she will be one of the prettiest in the business. When she is not concentrating on her future profession, she keeps up on the latest movies, books, and Duke Ellington discs.

Nothing endures but personal qualities.

DORIS E. STEACY
4302 Westminster Ave. Com.

S.A., A.A., Bowling Club, Ice Skating Club, Leaders Club.

Judging from the twinkle in her eye, you'd never know that Doris dislikes getting up in the morning. You can almost always find "Dor" at the Hogie Shop, dancing or banging away on the piano. Doris wants an easy job while waiting for her "one and only."

A little more sleep and a little more slumber.

When half of Philadelphia's male population isn't at Helene's, she is usually at Harriet's. Our cultured beauty intends to take up painting, at which she excels. How she packs that food away and still keeps that (h'mm) figure amazes everyone.

A guy named Joe.

THELMA YENTIS

5398 Wynnefield Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Library Aide, Victory Corps.

"Dovie" usually looks as though she'd just stepped from the pages of Vogue. Modeling is one of her professed dreams. If West Point were co-ed, she'd be in her glory; however, U. of P. will be a most satisfactory substitute.

Style is the dress of thought.

SALLY CLARK YOCUM

HARRIET ZIPIN

5751 Woodbine Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Delegate, Alternate, Gym Leader, Editor-in-Chief of Beacon, Record Book Literary Staff, Prom Committee.

"Zipsy" just can't be beat! When a tall, slender blonde has a sense of humor, a keen mind, and a winning personality, she has everything! Harriet paints a "mean" portrait and intends to become an illustrator. "No truer friend can e'er be found," says Helene.

The sweetest noise on earth, a woman's tongue.

JOSEPH SEIFRET

"Joe," our future business man, is famous for his model building. Models in the form of females rank high among his likes. Whenever you hear someone saying "Ach Dulieber," that's "Joe." Loud-mouthed people just don't rate with him, but baked cabbage he dislikes the most. Good Luck, "Joe," in all your future undertakings.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

MEMOIRS OF BUGS BUNNY

*Stop munching on that carrot, son,
And hear this wondrous story!
Of bygone days, when I was young,
Of school in all its glory.*

*Did I say just any school?
I must not overlook,
The fact that my best years were spent
At good old Overbrook.*

*I'll tell you of my 10A term.
We studied birds and bees,
And learned why when it's hot, they're warm
And when it's cold, they freeze.*

*I went to zero chemistry.
The snow was cold and deep.
But all I learned that year, my son
Was how I needed sleep.*

*When mixing my solutions,
I tried the acid test;
I put the mixture on the flame
And—need I tell the rest?*

*In 12A came the senior prom
A night of fun and laughter,
But I was downright "broke," my son,
Yes, "broke" for two weeks after.*

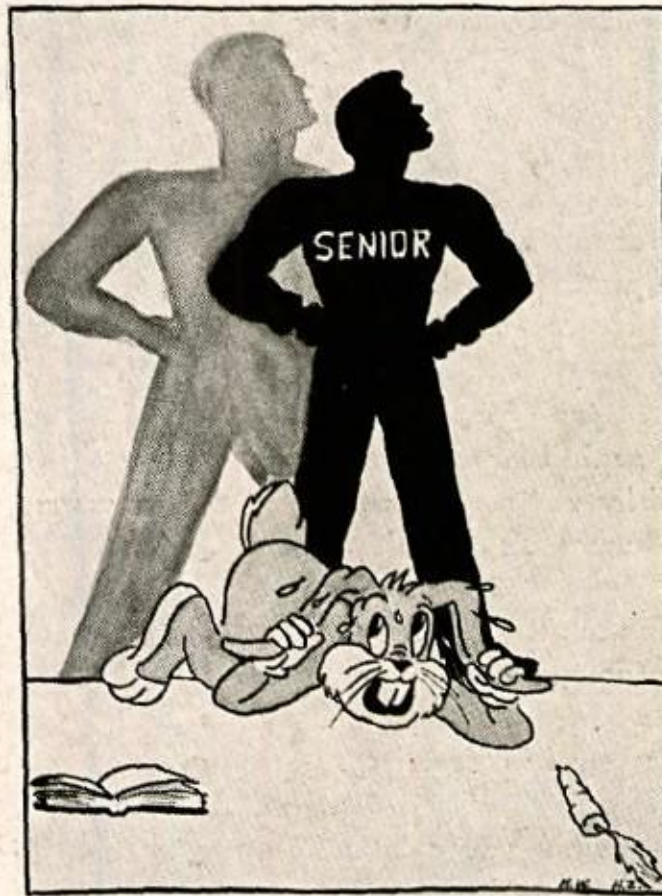

*The 12B term was best of all;
Collections, songs and shows,
The trip, the parties, all the fur
Made up for all the woes.*

*And then, on graduation night
My heart was filled with pride.
Fond farewells and memories,
Left me misty-eyed.*

*And when I think of Overbrook,
With sorrow and with mirth,
I come to the conclusion
'Twas the best place on the earth!*

*Loads of fun and full of tricks,
We, the class of June '46.*

Perry Gilliard orating continually. . . . Estelle Miller perpetually "grooming" her curly locks. . . . What was Marilyn Teller trying to gain by rolling her big blue eyes? . . . Ryda Dwarys' trademark of letter-perfect answers. . . . Joe Haas wiggling his front tooth just "sent" those freshmen. . . . Claire Rosen's "personality" knocking the boys' eyes out. . . . We never found what made them tick.*

THANKS FOR

*So reverently we'll all look back
In future years ahead,
On our high school days at O.H.S.,
And the merry lives we led.
We'll meditate on teachers wise,
On classmates, and the fun,
Of time we spent on the Hilltop,
'Til senior year was done.*

Mr. Seidman and Mr. Kreizman affording us their able guidance in compiling our successful Record Book. . . . Mr. Fraser awarding Landis Barish an amazing "IO" (and Landis wore trousers). . . . Miss McHenry's "clean as a whistle" classroom. . . . Mr. Ridington's delivery of those erudite anatomy lectures during Social Science class. . . . Who will ever forget Miss Longaker's conferences? . . . Mr. Loper suggesting that we stand on "tip-toe" to hit high "A"! . . . Remember Miss Reeder's "What do you say we try for $1000?" . . . Rene O'Loughlin rendering a stirring interpretation of Milton's "Loathed Melancholy." . . . Mrs. Belfield querying "Well, young man; where is your tie?" . . . From the escalator to the swimming pool, O.H.S. was one swell school.

How "chummy" we became with our fellow classmates in Room 102½. . . . The S.A. office where the rest of the gang spent free periods, studies, and other odd hours that were just floating around aimlessly on our rosters. . . . And those classic lunchrooms, the architecture of which must have been modeled after that of the ancient Greeks. . . . Can't you see the girls in the gym "tripping" to the delicate strains of some barn dance? . . . Then, think of the boys' gymnasium and "Eight more times around the track, Son!" . . . Physics class took on a new note after we discovered the musical chairs in Room 320. . . . Remember the typing rooms where we decided to give up the touch system for the hit and run method? . . . The modernly equipped laboratories were the homes of our little Einsteins who spent hours trying to resplit the Atom. . . . Surely, we'll never forget the furnace rooms from which came heat in the summer, and ice cold blasts in the winter. . . .

* * *

The life of a senior was carefree and gay, Fun, joy, and frolic filled every day.

It was thrilling seeing "Promoted to 12B" at the bottom of our reports. . . . Homeroom in the auditorium was noisy but exciting. . . . We signed our lives away a hundred times daily. . . . Remember working 'til the wee hours of the morn to help meet senior expenses? . . . The green and gray campaign ribbons were eligible for three battle stars; one for each year at O.H.S. . . . Senior privileges let us and Bugs Bunny out of our cages. . . . Our column in the "Beacon," "What's Up Doc?" gave forth with all the dirt on the doings of the Atomic Class. . . . January 11, 1946, will be remembered long as a night of dancing, dates, and dreaming—in short, our dazzling Senior Prom. . . . We were quite a sight carting our lunch-bags on that "Senior Trip of Trips." . . . Those "Days of Judgment" before graduation were just a bit tough on the nerves. . . . Graduation Night! How could we ever forget!!

* * *

*Sometimes when future days are long,
And filled with toil and strife,
We'll think of days in O.H.S.,
When we thought we loved life,
The years we passed within her walls,
Well spent as we look back,
Is proof that none can equal her,
The Orange and the Black.*

THOSE FOOLISH THINGS . . .

If the styles and fads of your high school days seem "corny" in 1960, remember that they were "right in there" at one time. . . . Well, weren't they? . . .

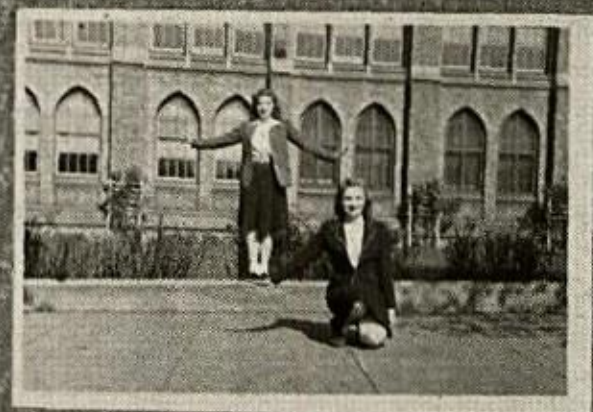

Our glamorous "Sloppy Joe" sweaters of 1944 became slightly snugger after a few years. . . . Why didn't anyone tell us that we resembled onion sacks tied in the middle when we wore those wide decorated belts? . . . New white saddles quickly took on the hue of a classical midnight black. . . . Those shaggy, wool socks kept our trembling toes "toasted" during the O.H.S. fuel shortage. . . . Pink and purple lipsticks were striking with our sallow "Monday after the big week-end" complexions. . . . Female hair styles had the dangling debutante effect. . . . And the males outdid themselves with their six inch pompadours and swingcuts! . . . Identification bracelets and friendship rings kept us posted on the love interests of fellow studes. . . . At least one reindeer sweater and a corduroy jacket were a "natch" for every "Joe-College." . . . And then there were those sophisticated "zoot suits" worn by the "select" individuals! . . . Anemic physiques and plaid bow ties were trademarks of the Frank Sinatra fans. . . . We all carried pennies in our shoes, and some Rockefellers even splurged with dimes! . . .

Our quips of speech probably made Shakespeare do somersaults in his grave. . . .

"Greetings Gate! What's Cookin'?" was the Hilltopper's holy password. . . . Beloved Profs were shocked no end by our intelligent exclamations of "but def" . . . or, "are you kiddin'?" . . . After finals we consoled classmates with a soothing, "Tough Apples, kid!" . . . Then came those delightful ditties like the one about "the moron who ate bullets so his hair would come out in bangs." . . . Anyone who showed up with homework completed on Monday morning was immediately dubbed an "Eager Beaver." . . . Lastly, those whooping cries of "Hey! Ba-Ba-Re-Bop" will echo long through the silent corridors of O.H.S. . . . Yessiree!—we were pretty shrewd customers back in our good, old, high school days! —No stuff!

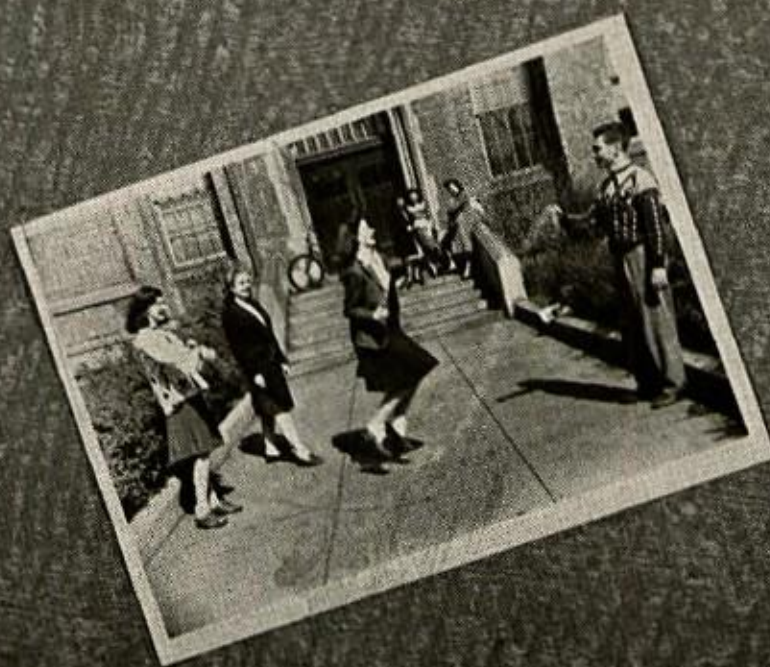

How Bugs

Went Bugs

On the Record

WE'RE NOT MAKING A PROPHECY!

IT HAS always been the policy of the class of June '46 to be different in everything we do.

Every Record Book before ours has devoted pages to raving on about the destinies of the members of the class.

We could easily look ahead into a crystal ball to nineteen-hundred-and-sixty and state such things as:

Wall Street and the entire business world is dominated by Jerry Hart, Norma Perna, and the Robbins twins. . . . Donald Ross has taken over the former Tex Beneke, former Glenn Miller band, and Zena Wexler is his newest vocalist. . . . Connie Mack's standing in the field of baseball finally has been equalled by our own James Warren. . . . Rita Amoroso and Janice Ingber are starring in the Ice Capades now playing at the Arena. . . . Paul Rosenthal and Nathaniel Clay have devised a means to split the split atom. . . .

But we won't look into crystal balls and prophesy, 'cause we don't want to be common.

Furthermore we could read the horoscope of classmates and predict as follows:

Eleanor Austin will be an airline hostess on that newest jet-propelled rocket plane designed by Anthony Corbo and William Goodfellow and built by Thomas Parker and Domenick Marinozzi. . . . Paris will be revolutionized by a new costume design establishment run by Lucy Celani and Katherine Gibson. . . . Miniature Golf will be the rage in the future with Myra Bleiman attaining the title of "World Champion." . . . Ralph Hazelton and Billy Rosenthal will invent a guaranteed painless tooth extraction. . . . The Universal Board of Executives will name as a perfect office staff the following: Louisa Barnada, Betty Berkle, and Jewel Bailey, secretaries; Estelle Valentine, Phyllis Martinelli, and Phyllis Rosenthal, typists; and Millicent Markowitz, Lorena Feeny, and Roslyn Herman, stenographers. . . .

But we won't rave on looking into the stars for the horoscopes of classmates 'cause it is done every day, and we want our Record Book to be cut of the ordinary.

Oh yes, we could look into tea leaves at the bottom of a cup and foretell the future as such:

Jimmy Woods, Evelyn Asquith, and Shirley Anderman will traverse the earth. . . . The dramatic stage will begin a new era when Shirley Dorfman takes her place. . . . It will be a great surprise when Rockefeller leaves his millions to none other than Joanna Albani and Connie Russo. . . . Octavia Capuzzi and Martin Misher will be given the task of mural painting in the cathedrals of Europe. . . . Ann-Lee Fitzhugh will create new and unusual hair styles and shades. . . . All other C.P.A.'s and accountants will go hungry when Jerry Rose, Paul Cohen, and Joseph Van Osten get started. . . . Joyce Killip, Gilda Price, Miriam Titleman, and Jean Galli will win the title of "Model Wife." . . .

But using tea leaves is "corny" so we won't even try to write a prophecy in that manner.

It is quite true that we could read the future in the palms of our classmates as many before us have done, and come across such things as:

Sonia Leon will rise to Metropolitan fame. . . . The "Angels of Mercy" will be beneficially supplemented by Annie King and Carnie Ragin. . . . Sharlene Griffin's basketball team will win worldwide acclaim. . . . Richard Finkel and Arnold Weinstein will replace the Charles Atlas advertisements. . . . Carmine Quintiliani will introduce a new triple-breasted suit. . . . Nettie Gentner and Mildred Geffen will go on being friends; as will Ileane Biener and Arlene Dickler. . . . George Cordivari will teach all the "little Cordivari's" how to cultivate that pompadour. . . . Dolores McCaffrey and Mollye Polonsky will devise a means of jumping over the horse with no hands, no feet. . . . People will just be dying to get into Vincent Mallory's undertaking establishment.

Sure, palm reading is a popular method of forecasting the future; therefore, we won't use it. As a matter of fact, we won't have any prophecy at all, 'cause we want to be different.

PARADISE

OUR NEW ATOMIC AGE

FEW and far between are the generations given the dubious privilege of beholding a radical turn in the evolution of mankind. To us has come this rare distinction of so being set apart.

On August sixth, nineteen hundred and forty-five, destiny and man decreed that we witness the birth of a new era. The first Atomic Bomb was then loosed upon a war-weary world that at the moment could only feel relief at the victorious end of hostilities. With time and sober thought, our elation has been tempered with fear and suspicion of other nations. This atomic age has put grave burdens and responsibilities on our young shoulders, but we must also remember its potentialities for good are boundless. The same atomic and electrical energy that can destroy a city can also usher in an age of economic sufficiency and an age singularly free from the scourge of dread disease. It can free us from the anomaly of national sovereignty and compel us to recognize that the earth is a geographic entity—One World!

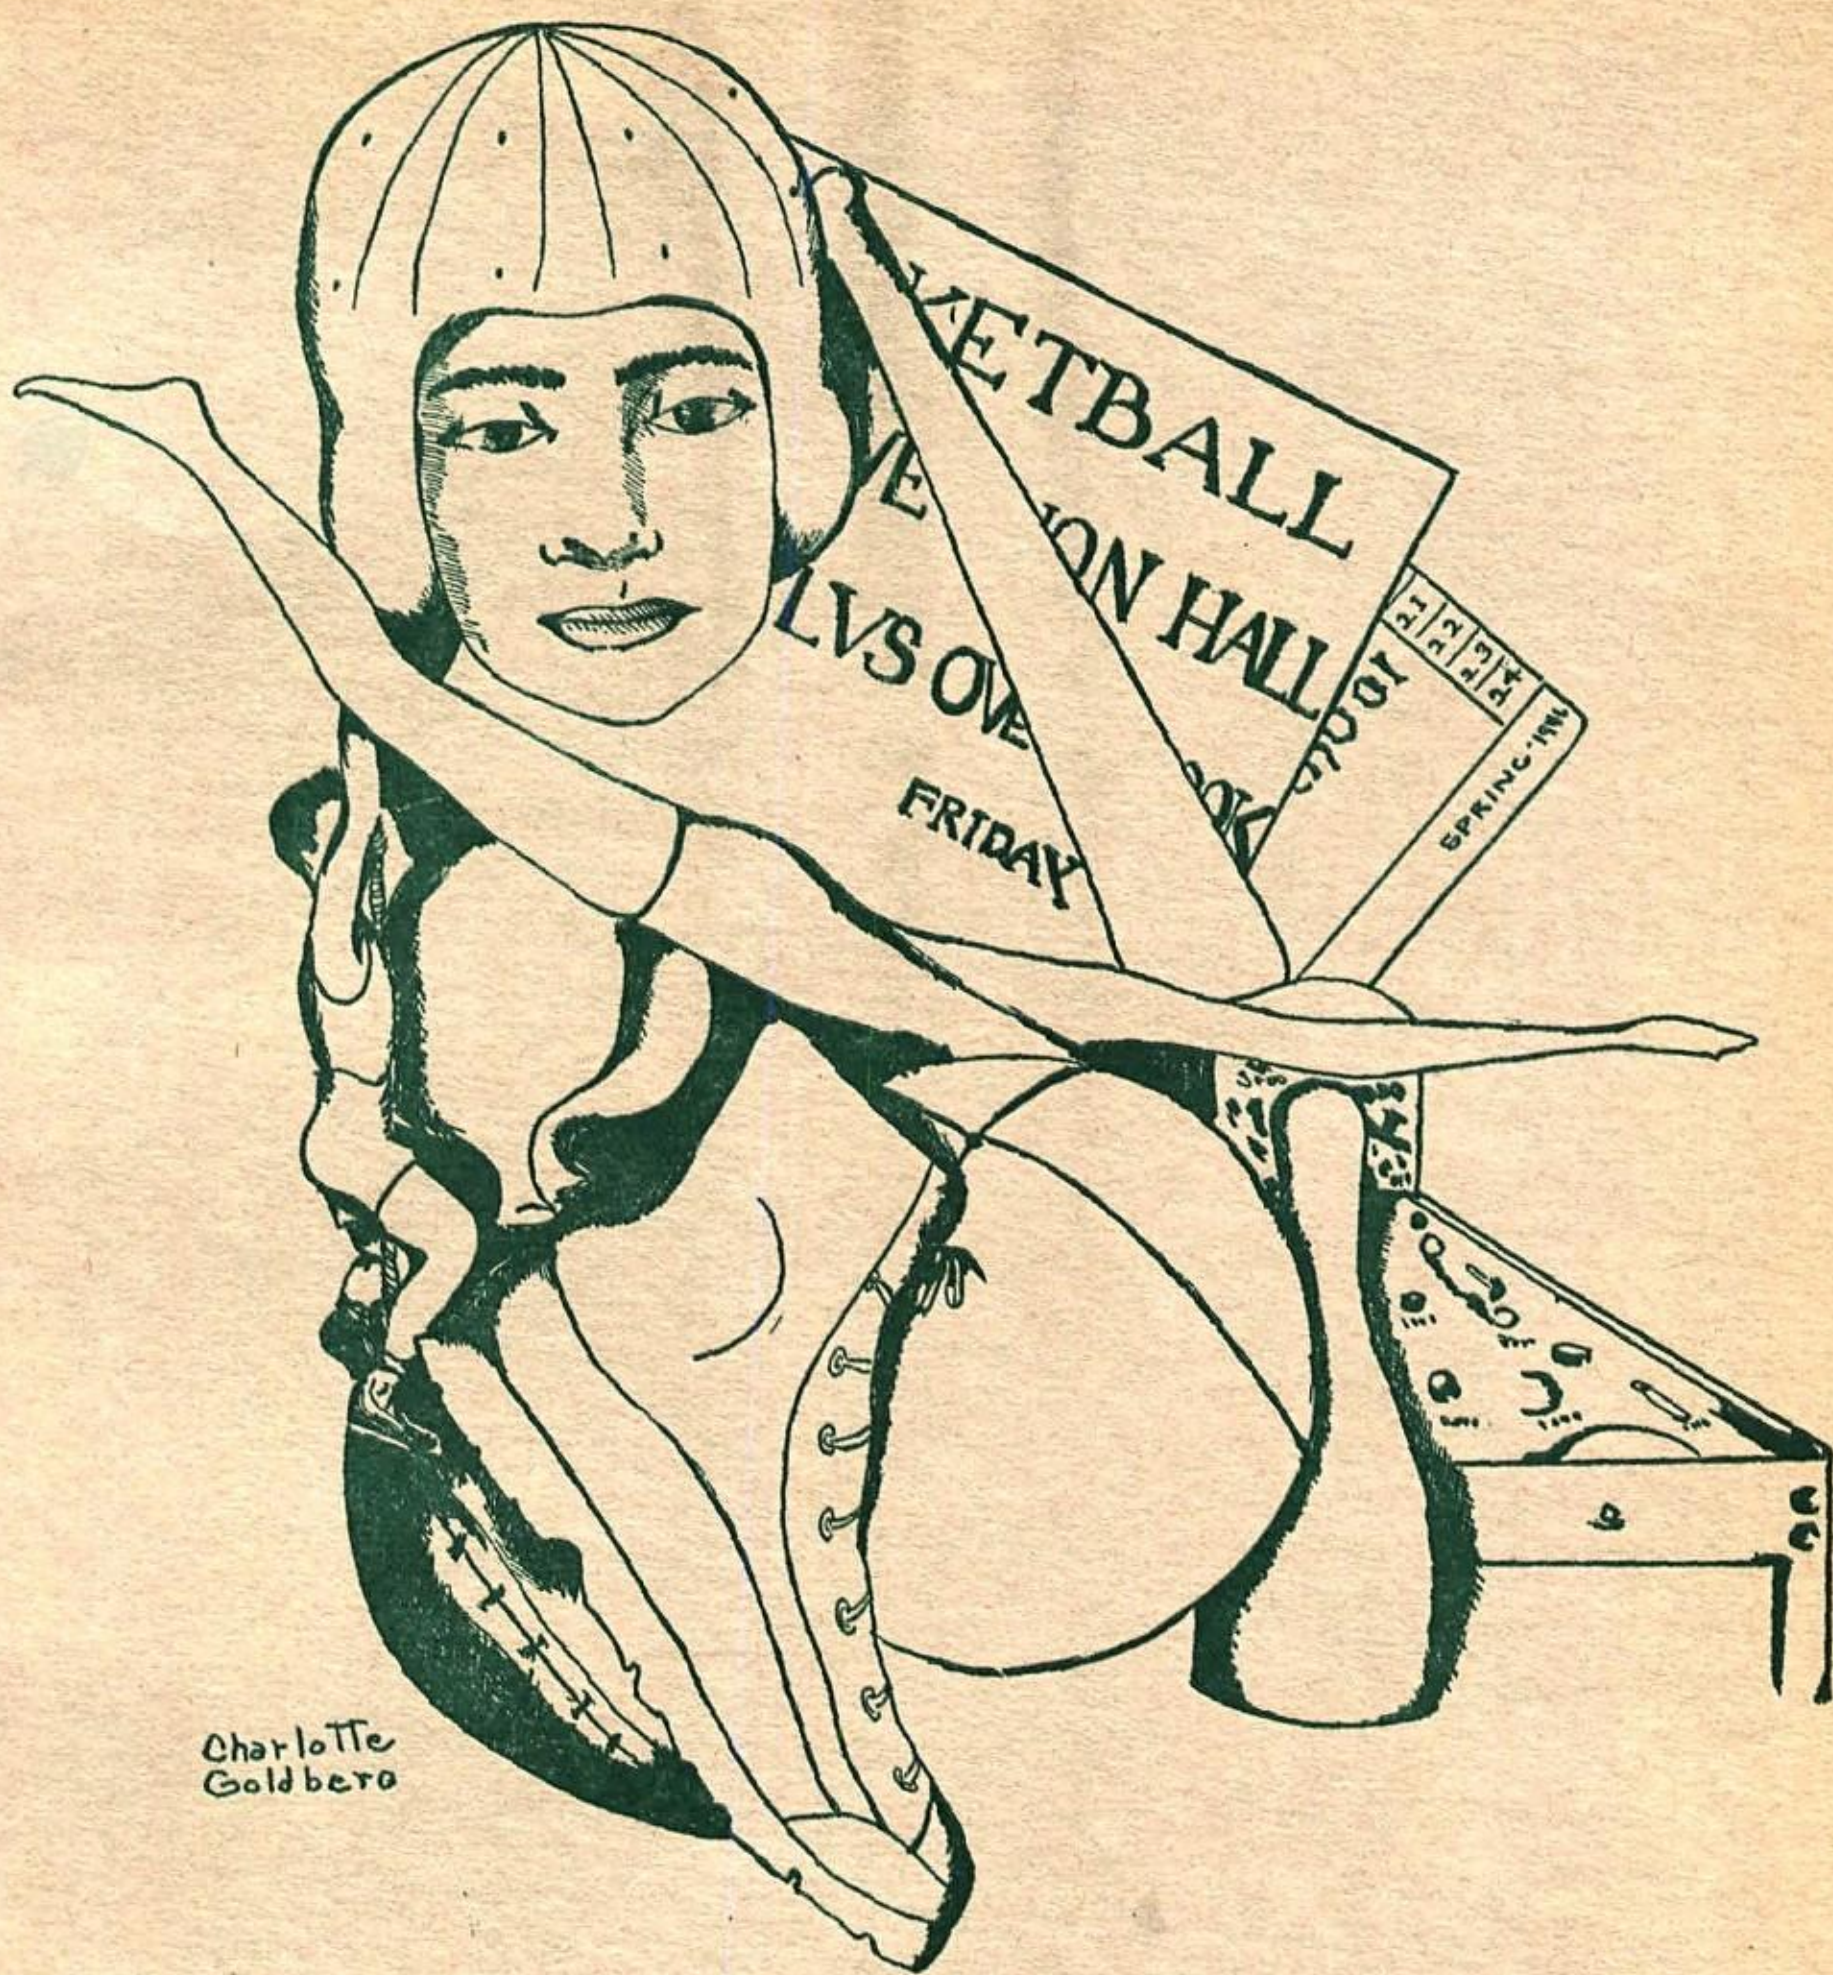

It is for us, the Citizens of Tomorrow, to make all this a reality. It is for us to make certain that man-made chaos and havoc be forever eliminated from the world. It is for us to make certain that the same courage, daring, and ingenuity demonstrated in winning the war be expended in meeting the problems of the New Age, and thus winning the peace as well.

Let us, therefore, take our places in society, unafraid and secure in the knowledge that with humility and wisdom the problem of both policing the Atom and exploiting its power is not insurmountable. With startling clairvoyance, Blaise Pascal wrote in sixteen hundred and seventy this gem of philosophy applicable to us about to enter the perturbed universe of the twentieth century: "Man is but a reed, the most feeble thing in nature; but he is a thinking reed. All our dignity then, consists of thought. By it we must elevate ourselves, and not by space and time which we cannot fill. By space the universe encompasses and swallows me up like an atom; by thought I comprehend the world."

SPORTS

THE Orange and Black eleven overcame many obstacles this year to provide us with a winning season. Although they played some of the strongest teams in this section, the Panthers won 5 games and lost 4, a good record in any league.

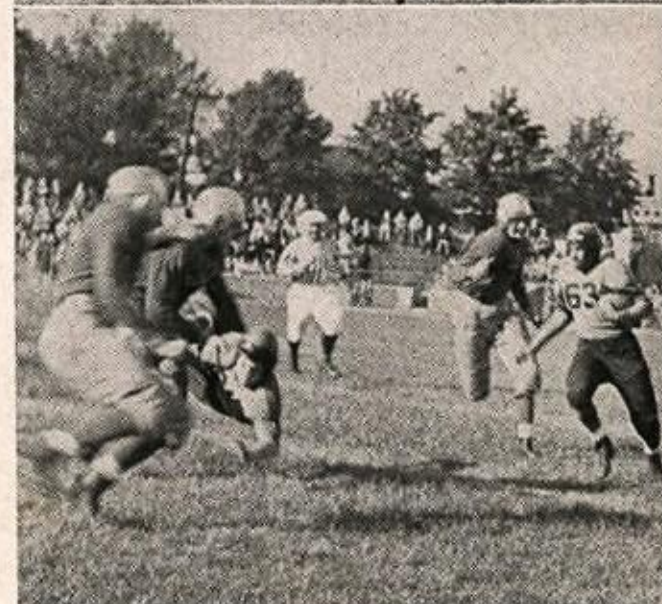

Our boys officially opened the season with a loss against Bridgeport High School. The following week all who traveled to Bridgeton, N. J. to see Overbrook in action against the local high school were duly rewarded. Showing a complete reversal of form over the previous week the Hilltoppers at the end of the game were on the top of a 26-13 score.

Thus with one win and one loss Overbrook came to the regular league schedule. After dropping the first game to Frankford we defeated Central and Ben Franklin in that order. Both games were tightly contested and won by the slim margin of one touchdown. The score of the former game was 13-7 and the latter 14-7.

The Panther eleven traveled into N. J. again, the next game on the schedule being Atlantic City High. Although this game was lost our team came back with enough strength to trounce Gratz decisively 53-7 the following week.

Overbrook's jinx, the perennial heartbreaker, West Philly was next. It was just a case of too much Nipon. A thrilling last quarter drive by the Orange and Black proved futile as West Philly won 13-7.

The Hilltopper's season was put on the credit side of the ledger by a hard-fought 7-2 victory over favored John Bartram, thus partially atoning for the previous week's debacle.

BASKETBALL

A WELL rounded quintet consisting of Carson, Greenberg, Graboyes, Love, and Goldsborough composed the basketball team this year. Starting the season with only one regular from last year's team the Weilermen succeeded in overcoming most of their opponents in the league.

After favorable showings in the pre-season contests and in the first league game with Roxborough, the Panthers met unexpected opposition in a strong Ben Franklin five, sparked by all-Public Mario Requesi. Although the Orange and Black lost to the champions from Southern High, hopes were still entertained for a berth in the play-offs; but these were rudely jolted by a well-coached Central club in one of the most hard fought games of the campaign. Other set-backs were suffered at the hands of West Phila. and Bartram, both top contenders for the league title.

On the winning side of the books however, the Hilltoppers had little trouble in beating Germantown, Olney, Gratz, Bok, Frankford, and Mastbaum, the latter seeing a new record of 88 points established against it. Despite the scoring spree which Overbrook enjoyed at the expense of Mastbaum, the real heights were reached against Dobbins and Northeast, in which games the Panthers seemed unbeatable. It was at the time of the victory over the Archives that Dunkel ratings placed Overbrook at the top of the public high league.

Albie Carson proved to be the team's spark plug by his dynamic all-around play, and Captain Lou Graboyes showed himself a smart and able floor general. Bernie Greenberg and Herman Lutzner came through with valuable support when most needed.

BASEBALL

UNDER the excellent guidance of Mr. Kistenmacher, Overbrook's baseball team started another season. Only six varsity members from last year returned to the team. Among them were: Lou Graboyes, hard-hitting catcher; Lou Russ, ace pitcher; Mike Milgrim, top-notch hitter and pitcher; Stan Giores, versatile first baseman whose defensive and offensive play has guided the team to many a victory; and Art McNab, hard-hitting outfielder.

In addition to these vets the Panthers added numerous players to their line-up. Sokoloff, Lassoff and Tucker became first-string pitchers, while Glass became Graboyes's substitute behind the plate. In the infield, Silver, Meyer, Crancchi, Renhow, Sukonik, Fishman, and Pasture became first team men. The hard-hitting outfield was rounded out by the additions of Tavani, Shuster, Nenitsky, Obst, Canatar, Nacarelli, and Hazleton.

In pre-season games the Hilltoppers fared well by beating St. Thomas More, 9-8; Friends' Central, 10-3, and tying N.E. Catholic, 11-11. Faulty fielding proved to be the O.H.S.'s downfall in the first two league games. Superb two-hit pitching by Russ went for naught against Southern, and excellent pitching by Tucker ended in a defeat by Central to the tune of 5-2. At last, in the third game, Noble Willis pitched a 3-0 victory over Bartram.

TRACK AND CROSS COUNTRY

OVERBROOK'S cross-country and track teams once more proved themselves to be among the tops in the city this year. The former, although not winning the Championship, came in close behind the winning Central squad; and the track and field outfit was shaping up into one of the leading contenders for the title, as the Record Book went to press.

The first season that we witnessed the performers on the cinder-paths as full-fledged members of the student body, saw the Panthers take the championship by the narrowest of margins, a half of a point, just ahead of rival Central. The next year, 1945, we watched the latter win the cup by a few points from our own stalwarts. But this is 1946, and the fruits of victory and the bitter-sweet of revenge seem like choice morsels indeed.

Of course, serious handicaps were presented by graduation. The loss of such stellar performers as James "Binky" Brown, high-hurdles; Eddie Gillespie, 440-yard run; Al Zlotnick, hurdles; and Don Snyder, mile and half-mile runs and others of that ilk and kin, presented Coach Collins with some choice problems. However, the presence of some seniors like George Shapiro, Perry Gilliard, Bill Goodfellow, and Paul and Willie Rosenthal, to mention just a few, helped brighten things more than a little.

LUNCHROOM AIDES

Our Lunchroom Aides are made up of a group of industrious students who are willing to sacrifice part of their lunch period to help keep the lunchroom clean. These pupils are under the leadership of Mr. Noll.

PROM COMMITTEE

Our thanks go to this committee, and also the committee of the preceding class for our highly successful prom. They worked hard and unceasingly to make the affair the grand success that it was.

BIG SISTERS' ORGANIZATION

The Big Sisters' Organization has done much to welcome the freshmen and acquaint them with the customs and regulations of our school. Dr. Baker is the sponsor.

The Ping-Pong Club, sponsored by Mr. Burke, and presided over by Maurice Haveson, attracted a great many students who enjoyed participating in this highly competitive sport.

ASTRONOMY CLUB

The Astronomy Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Ullrich has had a dual purpose this term. They have paid frequent visits to the Planetarium and the Observatory to learn more about astronomy, and have spent much time working on the telescope.

CHESS CLUB

The boys of our Chess Club under the sponsorship of Mr. Fraser spent many enjoyable hours after school at this pastime. The Chess Team, which is part of the club, was under the captaincy of Stanley Poplow.

ART CLUB

In the Art Club, talented and ambitious students may be found modeling clay, sketching, or mixing paints. Miss Camero is the sponsor of this industrious group.
